Educator Effectiveness

Summative Deadline: May 16th is the deadline for Spring teacher Summatives. More teachers tend to be ON in spring and the window for evaluations is shorter. Please get a jump on scheduling and completing your On cycles!

Special Education Compliance Elements

Special Education teachers need a minimum of 6 post IEP parent surveys to get a Parent Survey score. Last year, 62% of our Special Education teachers got a Parent Survey score. This is an important data point as it reflects the parent's perception of the IEP meeting and useful in discussing this aspect of your SpEd Teacher's work. Please prioritize getting this done and discuss ways to execute on it with your SEPA, SpEd Teacher, Parent Coordinator, etc. Here are the SpEd Compliance reports for Admin and Teacher conduct the Goal Setting Conference in EdReflect, you must complete both by this deadline.

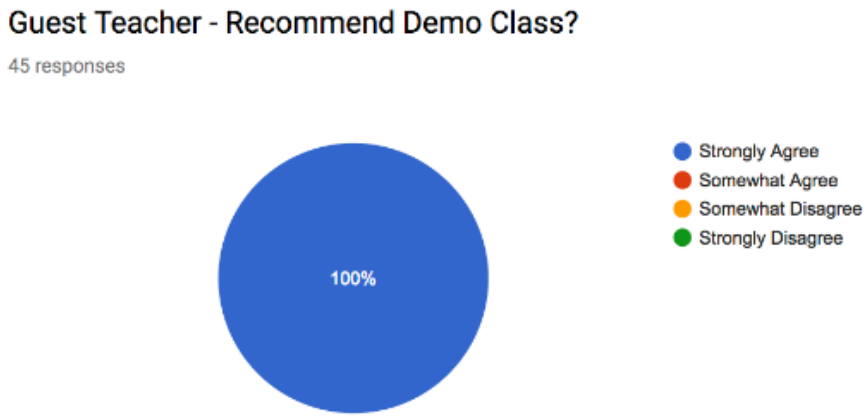
Please reach out to Narineh if you have any questions related to EdReflect.

Applications to Join a Guest Teacher Cohort for Semester 2 of the Demo Class Program Available Tue. 1/15 - Wed. 1/23

We are accepting applications for teachers to join semester 2 of the Demo Class Program beginning Tuesday 1/15 until Wednesday, 1/23. This semester-long PD is a great opportunity for new and experienced teachers of all content areas who want to analyze effective lesson planning, observe highly effective teachers across the organization, reflect on their own teaching practice and become more familiar with the CRTF. Last semester, 100% of participants reported that their participation in Demo Class positively impacted their teaching practice, and that they would recommend the program to other teachers:



If accepted to join a cohort of guest teachers, participants will be subbed out 3 times during semester 2 to travel to other school sites. Please help us spread the word by:

1. Inserting these 3 Demo Class Promo Slides into the announcements section of your next staff PD

2. Sending a quick email to your staff with the application link or encouraging individual teachers who you think would benefit from the program to apply.

We are looking for teachers of all levels of experience who are reflective and interested in pushing their teaching practice to the next level through classroom observations and collaboration. Applications are due Wednesday, January 23rd via Google form. Please reach out to Rosa Joo (rjoo@greendot.org) with any questions about the Demo Class Program. Thanks for your support!

Data Analysis Support for Midyear RI Test Administration: The RI midyear testing window ended just before the winter break. Below are some helpful tools for school site analysis, goal setting and for communication of progress with parents.

NEW! Internal Literacy Growth Report

This brand new report includes a test completion status tab as well as grade level RI proficiency band data, % of students meeting growth goals, and average lexiles for first and last RI tests. The data can also be filtered by subgroups. If you'd like assistance navigating this report, please reach out to Tarah Jensen or Leona Matthews.

Progress to College and Career RI reports –

This valuable report can be downloaded from Leader Central, but because not all teachers have access to SAM and to save you time pulling reports, Ceci Howard downloaded all of the files for each school organized by grade level files. You can access the reports in this file folder. We recommend that teachers share this report with students along with midyear reflection resources on CONNECT. It is also an excellent report to send home to parents to facilitate discussion about lexile and independent reading goal setting.

Please reach out to Leona Matthews or the literacy specialist at your site with questions about how to use this report. You can also request a midyear data analysis meeting to guide lexile and literacy program implementation analysis.

Salesforce Reminders

- Event/meeting attendance should be entered within 1 week into Salesforce. This includes PIQE attendance: each PIQE session should be entered separately so that parents attending multiple sessions can be recognized for doing so and so that we can better assess multi-session engagement year to year.
- If you create a new parent contact, please be sure the student name, ID, and school code is input in the parent record. Without the school code, that parent's attendance will not transfer into school dashboards or reports.
- Please follow the naming conventions we reviewed during the summer training and at AGDD (re-attached here).
- If you need support accessing or leveraging your dashboard or reports, please reach out to Veronica Toledo.

Survey for Parent Coordinators

UPAS is working on the curriculum for the March 20th AGDD and July summer training and would really like PC feedback on the topics they would find most useful and relevant. Please ensure PCs take 3-5 minutes to complete this survey by EOD today: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/GJTCP38. We really appreciate their feedback.

Communications

We will be providing digital engagement information here instead of additional emails.

- Here is a weekly content recommendation for Facebook posting:

869 Donations

739 New Donors

School Winners:

$5,000 match for the first school in each region to secure 100 donors

- Ánimo Jackie Robinson High School (CA)
- Hillcrest High School (TN)

$2,500 match for other schools that secured 100 donors

- Ánimo Watts College Preparatory Academy (CA)

- Bluff City High School (TN)

$2,500 additional match for hitting fundraising dollar and donor goal

Congratulations to Washington's Excel Public Charter School for raising the most donations in the WA network with 63 new donors.

Please note funds raised including matches from every campaign will be transferred to each school's account in the coming weeks to use for College Access and Tour expenses. Development will notify principals when the funds are ready.

So many deadlines! So many documents! One stop shop for all school site evaluation deadlines and materials can be found here.

Teacher Evaluations
Performance Evaluation Master List: Please check your school's Master List and confirm which teachers evaluations are happening in the spring and by whom. If you have a teacher going on leave, you would note that too. We are asking that each school's MasterList is validated by January 31st.
Late Hires: If you hire a teacher after December 1, you can choose to keep them OFF in the spring and move into Group 1 in the fall of next year or to evaluate them. Either way, we will need to know so that we can set them up correctly in Ed Reflect. Please email Rachel Provost and Julia Fisher with plans for any late hires.
Upcoming Student Survey window: Student surveys window begins in two weeks (2/11-3/8)! This year, in an effort to lower costs and improve transparency, the Student Survey will be 100% online and schools will need to execute a plan to get all students on a computer within that window.
Summative Deadline: May 16th is the deadline for Spring teacher Summatives. More teachers tend to be ON in spring and the window for evaluations is shorter. Please get a jump on scheduling and completing your On cycles!

I had Christina pull the 9th grade iReady data and it actually looks okay. I think once Shazeen tests 9th grade should be mostly good and we will work with Ms. Tartan to test the handful that did not finish testing.

Hi there, Franz and Nicole!

Thank you again for meeting this morning. I love working with the two of you, and I am excited to see the fruits of your labor this quarter! Looking forward to planning again at the end of the month.

In order to keep us all on the same page and organized, I wanted to email a summary of our meeting today, tools, and next steps. Please reach out at any point if you have questions, want feedback, or for anything else. I'll see you at your school site retreat on Monday AM – have a great rest of the week and weekend :)

All my best,
Steph

Summary:

- Ready to incorporate No Red Ink once other teachers have shared tips and ideas.
- Assigned lead planner for the next couple of weeks and what to include as a lead planner.
- Determined potential structure for non-Monday lessons.
- Determined potential structure for reading checks.

Tools:

- Centralized planning tool with anchor standards, unit outcomes, and big-picture meeting notes.
- Chapter summaries, already done through chapter 13!
- Quarter 3 calendar, where we'll house skeletal planning notes.

Next steps:

- At any point, please use the @ feature on Google docs to flag that you want Steph to weigh in!
- Complete No Red Ink teacher orientation segment (called "Digital Training").
- During 1/11 department time, gather tips, tricks, and suggestions from ELA teammates.
- For lead planning weeks, complete planning by the end of the day on Thursday so that your partner is able to finalize plans over the weekends.
- Lead planning includes: objective, questions to ask during reading, stopping points aligned to those questions, and any other relevant chapter tips.

Hi Julio

Happy Tuesday ☺

Just a quick note --- I met with John Kannofsky last Thursday on campus. He reached out with some general questions about the AP process changes since he wasn't able to attend a teacher meeting and we set up a time to meet on his prep. Pretty straightforward conversation and he was relatively aligned with our rationale ☺

He also had some larger picture questions about how GD supports the Arts and he may choose to come speak at a Board meeting about it in public comment.

Just keeping you in the loop – no action needed!

Can we check in on hiring for the SPED position and the Sped Aide. It looks like we have funding for SPED that we are saving on because of Glynis writing IEPs, saving us $150/hr and that MAXIM will not charge us for that part when the Long term SPED teacher starts.

Hi everyone,

I am emailing to let you know that I cannot make it to work tomorrow due to being up all night with food poisoning. I have already let my student teacher know, and I believe LMU's policy is for her to still come to campus and attend classes even when I'm not present. She won't be running any lessons tomorrow but will support the sub if needed since she saw the lesson yesterday. I've attached my materials just in case, but they're already printed.

Per Sara's email recommendation for teachers who are out tomorrow, I will wait to administer the advisory lesson until Friday. Would an admin mind checking on my student teacher at some point during per. 5-7 tomorrow to make sure she's ok? So sorry for the late notice; this has not been a fun night ☹.

Hey there.

I have a doctor appointment with an orthopedic surgeon today at 3:30 but apparently they are not sure if they will be able to access my x-rays on my right elbow so I have to run quickly to my primary doctor to get a copy of those e-rays. I'll be quick as his office is on 9th and Wilshire.

Sorry and thanks.

Good evening,
I think it is important that we get communication out to all of our parents regarding LAUSD's vote on Tuesday. I am guessing parents have questions, and we want them to understand that the vote did not directly impact any of our current schools.
Please choose one of the following options to get our official statement out to parents by next Tuesday. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Option 1: Print out the attached letter in Spanish and English and send a copy home with students.

Option 2: Send out a blackboard message letting parents know they can find our response to the resolution passed by LAUSD by clicking on the link at the top of your school's website.

Hi Julio,

I am writing because there was a parent concern about the film permission slip I sent home. The plan was there that were going to be some film/clips sprinkled into the English 9/10 credit recovery to supplement the units. I left the parent note/permission on your desk. At the beginning of the semester, I had briefly spoken to Sherrie a little about the is approach to help engage students more due to the lack of engagement during semester one. I informed students that they were signing the complete list just to cover myself and also because timing was not ideal due to schedules not being finalized but students being put into the class/needing to just get into the content immediately

If you can communicate to mom to ensure she understands students are not just watching movies all class period and if she does understand to then find out if [redacted] is unable to watch specific films or any time we watch a clip of any film/video clip/documentary.

We are slowly and successfully reaching out to parents and are meeting with them regarding academic progress and/or other issues.

For now, we can focus on our students that have a GPA of 1.5 or below by either scheduling conferences or making phone calls.

Conferences/ parent meetings/DRB's for 9th grade so far:

[redacted] - DRB follow up took place
[redacted] - DRB took place
[redacted] - parent conference took place
[redacted] - parent conference scheduled with Jessica for Tuesday at 2
[redacted] - parent conference scheduled for Mon at 8:30

I will make some more phone calls on Monday and let you know who I'm able to contact and what we can schedule.

Thank you so much admin and Jessica for taking on some of these conferences/ meetings to support the 9th grade!!

Hi there all,

Cybele and I have had some really good conversations around both our discipline process and our academic integrity document and we would like to work together and with anyone else who is interested to make some headway on a process that we can all be happy with and committed to.

We are going to start on Monday after school and first focus on adapting and updating the academic integrity document (attached). I've invited Jef and Josh to join us as they have both expressed concerns and interest in this but all are welcome if this is a passion project you are interested in.

We'll meet in Cybele's room after school on Monday.

Thank you!

Date:	Tuesday, January 15, 2019 8:53:23 AM

Good Morning Mates

It was shared with me that there was a concern with starting PD at 2:20.

I understand that the concern was that I did not shared or involved the calendar committee. While I hear and understand your concern, I did not see it necessary for the following reason. The language of the contract talks about significant change to the calendar. I do not see 10 minutes to PD as a significant change to the calendar. The end of the day is not being extended, I am not adding extra days, I am not extending a classroom period, I am not taking way or shoring lunch time. We have a gap of time between the end of the instructional day on Wednesday and the start of PD. I would like to use 10 of those minutes for everyone to be able to work and be on the same page about advisory in order to see the success that we would like to see.

Please know that while I did not talked to the calendar committee, I also did not made change all by myself. In collaboration with advisory leads we brainstorm several ideas in order to find the time and we all agree that this would be the best way to go.

Gracias

Hello,

Basically, I remember that [redacted] saw someone outside and walked to the door to greet them or tell them something. He called out to [redacted], who was sitting in the back of the classroom, and beckoned him outside. I walked to the door to tell [redacted] to move and also to block [redacted] way so that he could not exit the classroom. I got to the door before [redacted] did, and he just pushed past me. It was not like he paused and used his arms to roughly push me aside. It's more like he just continued to walk toward the door full speed even when he saw me at the doorway. He pushed my hands away and I felt him pushing my back as well. While trying not to trip, I briefly bumped into [redacted]. He was partially outside and was still holding on to the door when this occurred.

At that point, I told [redacted] to come inside and told [redacted] to go to the office. [redacted] began asking me why he had to go, but did not try to stop me from closing the door on him.

This occurred in the middle of class.

I hope this is somewhat helpful,
Nicole

Happy New Year Animo Venice SPED team,

I hope you all are having great first few days back, and that everyone had much deserved and need winter break. I am reaching out in regards to our plan for supporting the SPED team in Lilly's absence for this semester to ensure we are all on the same page.

January

- LTS from DE will teach AS and provide all co-teaching, push-in, and check in services as Lilly was.
- Glynis will support with DP IEP, and any other IEPs that are due in January.
- We will need a SPED teacher at Venice or divide and conquer all 3 of the SPED teachers to log service minutes. You are NOT providing services, just logging the minutes the sub provides until our credentialed SPED teacher begins. Once he begins Glynis will train him to log. Can the three of you discuss who will take which students to log minutes for?

February

- Date is TBD, but our credentialed LTS will be starting, and since he has a SPED credential he can perform the role of the SPED teacher in its entirety, meaning: teaching AS, push-in, co-teaching, check-in services, logging his service minutes, writing, and holding IEPs.
- Glynis will be setting up time to be on campus more often to coach him on how to use Welligent, timelines, LAUSD guidelines, service tracking etc.

As always, if there are questions or concerns please reach out!

Best,

  - Kelly: kelly.gonez@lausd.net
- Call Kelly and Monica's office and ask them to vote no.

Kaleem,
Great PPT presentation! Quick question about contact authorities. The last slide indicates that we should call LAUSD school police. But, we've learned through experience that we are supposed to call Pacific Division. Does this change for the strike?

Hi Sherrie,

Attached you will find my notes for the drama and English 12 switch. I only looked at the largest class (Drama) to see if change would be a possibility. The change will not be possible, out of 31 students, only a maximum of 5 students will be able to make the switch. If a student's schedule does not permit the switch, I wrote notes as to why. Let me know if you need anything else.

Hi!

As I mentioned in my original request for your placement, we are conducting phone screens with all potential student teachers prior to committing to the placement. Unfortunately, given the Winter break, the soonest we could get some scheduled, is tomorrow (Friday, 1/11). If your student teacher is a go (which most likely will be the case as we have not seen any from LMU not work out!), they will arrive to you on Monday, 1/15. I will shoot you an email asap tomorrow (as soon as we know), and include contact information. I am sorry this is down to the wire in terms of confirmation…thanks for your patience.

In addition, while most TEP programs provide you with their guidelines for effective mentoring, we wanted to give you a few suggestions that might make the student teacher's experience at Green Dot even more memorable. Because student teachers can be a key recruitment pipeline for your school site (and others), we want them to see and experience many of the things that set us apart from other districts/CMOs. We want their experience with us to put Green Dot at the top of their "where I'd like to teach" list.

Before Your Student Teacher Arrives	Your Student Teacher's First Day	Throughout Your Student Teacher's Placement
We know that placements are sometimes only confirmed a day or so in advance of their arrival on your campus, so some or all of the below, may or may not be feasible ahead of time. If a visit prior to the start date is not feasible, try to accomplish some/all of these suggestions within the first few days of their placement. ➢ Call your student teacher a few days/a week prior to their start date to welcome them to your school and see if they have any	If your student teacher was not able to visit the campus prior to their start date, arrange for them to meet you there earlier than normal, so you can show them around, introduce them to some of the other teachers (especially the ones with classrooms closest to yours), the office staff, and your administrative team. ➢ Eat lunch with your student teacher in the teacher's lounge, and use this time to go over any questions they may already have, and/or have them get to know some of your colleagues. (You should probably do this for the first week or so, and at least sporadically throughout the placement.)	As you spend time with your student teacher, if you begin to see this person as a potential fit for Green Dot (at your school if there is an opening, OR at another of our campuses), please encourage your Principal and/or Assistant Principal(s) to come observe him/her, and have the three of you debrief together. Having an administrator(s) show an early interest may help convert a student teacher to a new hire more quickly. (Also, please notify Lisa Nichols in Human Capital, so we can help to convert this student teacher into a hire ☺) ➢ Provide your student questions. Make sure they understand how to get to you, where to park, and any other pertinent information they might need on their first day.

    - If possible, have them visit the campus a day or so in advance, meet you, take a tour, etc.
- Try to arrange a desk (in a pinch, even a student desk will suffice) where they can sit, and a place where they can store their belongings/organize work.
- Let your students (and their parents) know that you will be hosting a student teacher for "x" amount of time, and what exactly that will entail. Remind your students that the student teacher is a teacher like any other, and should be accorded the same level of respect and consideration as any other teacher.
- Arrange for your student teacher to spend some time with your administrator during their first week or so, so they can get to know each other, too. A short coffee

- As with your students, discuss your expectations of the student teacher with him/her, and ask about their expectations of you.
- Talk to them about why they want to teach and what kind of teacher they want to be. How do they envision students describing them when they have their own classroom?

teacher with several opportunities to observe and debrief with other teachers at your site – let them experience teaching styles different from your own, and see for themselves that many of the practices they observe/learn in your classroom are used across the board at your school.

- The more you can work with them on (and allow them to implement) classroom management, the better prepared they will be for their own classroom – regardless of where they choose to teach upon earning their credential.
- Arrange some time for your student teacher to meet with a Curriculum Specialist (preferably one in their content area) to better understand some of the new teacher supports provided at Green Dot. Ideally, have them sit in on an actual coaching session with a new teacher at your site (with that teacher's and the CS's approval, of course).
- While they will be required (per their TEP) to attend all collaboration and professional development with you, be sure to have them actively participate – especially in collaboration activities. We want to student teachers to see what "working together" is really like here at Green Dot.
- Share your reasons for coming to work at Green Dot – and most importantly, why you have stayed. Let them know what your goals are as a teacher – be it to remain

date would be great! ➢ Pull together all materials that your student teacher might need (copies of school calendar, bell schedule, campus map, student handbook, teacher handbook, etc.) If you can send this information to your student teacher ahead of their start date (or have it for them at the above-mentioned tour), all the better.		in the classroom in a leadership position, or to move into administration. Again, it is a chance for them to understand what growth looks like at Green Dot. ➢ Get to know your student teacher, what makes him/her tick, likes/dislikes, how they learn best, etc. Put into practice with your student teacher, some of the same strategies you use with your students – strategies to build relationships, engage and teach. A strong and successful relationship with you will go far in converting a student teacher into a Green Dot teacher!

The Human Capital department will also be observing your student teacher, and asking you for written feedback – maybe more than once, depending on the length of placement. Please be timely in your response, as well as completely honest – providing as many specifics as possible. This will allow us to better gauge if the student teacher is a potential hire, especially if your school site does not have an appropriate opening and we want to present him/her elsewhere.

And finally, if you have concerns about a student teacher's performance, please document specifics and discuss with him/her as soon as possible - work directly with your student teacher on strategies to overcome issues. You are also welcome to address these issues with the TEP Field Supervisor, and, if you feel the situation warrants, please reach out to Lisa Nichols (Lisa.Nichols@greendot.org) with Human Capital (and notify your Principal that you are doing so). While we hope that most concerns can be addressed directly with the student teacher, we are here for you if you need us.

Again, thank you for taking on this role, and please know that the Human Capital team is truly appreciative. We are here to help and/or answer any questions you might have – so don't hesitate to ask!

Importance:	High

Good Afternoon Principals,

Hopefully everyone is familiar with the procedures for critical incidents such as an earthquake, fire, etc. However, we must also be thoroughly familiar and prepared for temporary power outages. Last week, we experienced power outages at three schools due to weather conditions (Locke, AJBT, ACPA). As a result of temporary power failure, all three schools decided to cancel school for the day and send students and staff members home. As a proactive measure, we would like to share with all of you procedures for managing your campus during a power outage. Attached to this email you will find the "Guidelines for Power Failure/Temporary Outage".

Rest assured that during such an emergency, the EOC will be activated and will support your on-scene ICS teams. We will have to work around foreseeable problems such as not being able to utilize computers, accessing the internet and utilizing our I.T. based office phones. However, our top priority is student and staff safety. Adjustments can always be made. As with any precautionary measures, different circumstances may warrant different decisions. We appreciate your understanding and flexibility. Should you have any questions, feel free to reach out to the security department. Thanks.

Please let me know if you have formal dresses you wouldn't mind lending us for the day.

We will need the dresses by February 14th.

Anything formal or semi-formal will do in long or short length, so cocktail, bridesmaid, or wedding guest dresses etc.

I will be storing all dresses in the cabinet in room 205 and they will be returned to you on March 1st.

Hi team,

Our lead teacher at ASLA has expressed potential interest in transferring next school year, Patty Ibarra. We have a few current confirmed openings in the organization, and she has expressed interest in touring these schools to see if these schools may be sites she would like to interview with. Your site currently has a confirmed opening, and I will be touring her around campus on 2/14 to aid in her determination of whether or not she will seek out transferring. Please note that she will be touring another site as well the following week.

Please let me know if you have any questions!

This is a reminder to pull [redacted]) reguarding taking pictures of Ms. Navarro's final exam and sharing them with the class. See email on 12-19. He has Ms. Navarro for 6th period.

"Regarding [redacted], I called his father and mentioned the incident, and requested a parent conference when they return from their trip to Mexico. Parent was upset about the incident and is very supportive of the teacher because he does not tolerate cheating. We are scheduling the conference upon his return. Student will have the opportunity to explain what happed and why he did it. As a result, [redacted] will receive a letter grade of a F 50% as a final grade for the exam. Since he is on vacation he will not have the opportunity to re-take the exam. With a 50% on the final, the student has received a final grade of D 68% in Spanish 2A final grade. This student is a first-time offender and should be suspended from my class for one day to write a reflection on why cheating is unacceptable. I am requesting this reflection upon his return to my class. "

Hi,

I am writing to request more privacy during lunch/prep. With no private space to pump on this campus, it has become very challenging to pump during my breaks without interruption. It's extremely uncomfortable to be walked in on when door is locked.

I have made it clear to students regarding what days I am available at lunch but it is also getting out of control with the knocking/not leaving until I stop pumping to ask for the obsessive knocking to stop.

Also, the heater still hasn't been fixed. I hesitate to ask for repair as I am worried this will be fixed while pumping. If someone could fix before/after school.

Thank you!

Good Morning Administrators,

This data is coming a little later than normal – particularly because we wanted to make sense of and appropriately frame our IAB data in this first round. You can use this district data for comparison purposes and to make sense of the class and student level data on your campus. You can also share the data with department chairs or teachers if it feels meaningful and is appropriately framed.

Q2 Math IAB Data – The first two pages are context and framing for making sense of the data. The rest of the document has comparison charts and graphs by school, grade level, and test.

Q2 Science GDCAP Data – Documents are available showing average student performance at MS and HS for each of the Q2 GDCAPs by school and/or individual science teacher.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to me or your Math Curriculum Specialist with questions about any of the data reports.

Hey Miss,
I'm in Ms. Rubin's AP lang class and she is using the last 45 minutes of class to have the students write a synthesis essay. I know that there is a need to have the students practice the timed writes but I'm wondering if you have any thoughts on how she could do this and keep more of her class time? Or maybe I am being way to picky and just trying to find something to talk about? Lol

Thanks!

I hope all is going well! I'm working with one of our APEX teachers here and I know that we have the option of exempting students from certain elements of a course and I was wondering if you and I could check in so I can better understand that part. ☺

Do you have time for a chat sometime soon (she asks on a Friday afternoon lol) ?

Hey Arlene,
We had an interesting question to ask. Is it allowable for us to have photo copies ID cards for people on our emergency contact list? We had an incident today where someone came to pick up a child but did not have any ID on them. We told them that we could not release a student to an adult without seeing the ID so now we are wondering if to prevent parents or people leaving angry at us if we could keep ID photos so that if it ever happened again we could check the students file to see if their ID was there?

Does that make sense and are we allowed to do that?

Thanks!

I forgot to ask when we were talking.

1. I have a student who said she took the diagnostic 2 but we don't have scores for her for the m/c section. I have to look through the test books to see if her answer sheet is there. Where are they at this point?
2. Where should I stash my computer cart during the break? Not so sure if I feel safe leaving it here since others have accessed my room after hours.

Thanks

Hi Team,

Hope you are having a great Friday! I wanted to share with you a great new resource that was released in Goal Book Pathways for conducting quick reading assessments or incorporating into your lesson plans.

Quick Highlight: It provides pre and post assessments common core standard aligned passages and questions at 3 levels of rigor (DOK 1-3) for differentiation.

Use for: formative assessments, quizzes, homework, informal assessments, work samples, and progress monitoring.

Full package includes: assessments and reading passages with Lexile and word count, DOK 1-3 questions, extension questions, scoring rubrics, template of certificate for when students master the specific standard.

Attached: I attached a middle and high school example of the passages.

Good Afternoon,

I was in Mr. Torres' 3rd period class this afternoon in order to offer support and noticed that [redacted] has been transferred into this class period.

This is definitely NOT a good fit for her or other students in that class. This has historically been a challenging class for Mr. Torres since semester 1, and the addition of [redacted] means that there is another very chatty, easily distracted, and not focused student. I observed her talking the entire period, and in addition, completed very little of her assignment.

Can we please move [redacted] out of Spanish 1A during 3rd period and into another class period.

I know that last semester we discussed changing some of the students schedules to ensure that they are successful- however, changing [redacted] into 3rd period completely contradicts our original purpose. I understand that her classes may have been changed for other reasons, but can we please see how we can fit a different spanish class period into her schedule.

Thanks,
Sarah

Dear R180 Teachers and Admin over ELA,

Happy Holidays! Here is your December R180 Newsletter. It's a long one, but it is a good one full of important information ☺

The Logistics…

Book Quiz Update – GREAT NEWS! (please read on) HMH heard us and you can now access all R180 Universal Book Quizzes in Reading Counts.

How do students access R180U quizzes in Reading Counts?
First, students should click on the Reading Counts icon.

Once there, students will find the quizzes labeled as "R180U" in the Reading Counts search section. Students can optionally take a more challenging version of these quizzes, which are labeled "R180U HOT".

What reports do I run?
The Reports tab in SAM will give you the data on student performance with Reading Counts.

you Leah Ballentine, Ziggy Griffith, David Matthews, and Amanda Garcia! Your knowledge is invaluable!

R180 Benchmarks

As of 12/1, students should be averaging a minimum of 414 minutes on software. If you want to see if your students have hit this mark, click here to learn how to run the report.

As if 12/1, you should be averaging a minimum of 23 total sessions by this time of the year. If you would like to see if your students hit this mark, click here to learn how to run the report.

Reports to Run this Week (click on the link learn how to run the report)

Lexile Proficiency and Growth Report

- Check Lexile scores and create groups based on this data and to see Lexile growth. This report includes S44 students.

Summary Progress Report (PI Report)

- This report shows changes in performance and progress on the PI over time. Use the results to monitor student response to intervention and inform grouping.

R180 Student Application Report
This report will tell you the following:

- the number of segments completed
- Lexile Growth
- the number of segments

What does this mean moving forward?
We recommend that you transition to Reading Counts for Semester 2, as it makes it easier to manage words read and book celebrations. However, if you have a successful system in your classroom that uses both Reading Counts Quizzes and R180U Student App quizzes, you can maintain it, but please note that these words will not be counted in district wide celebrations moving forward.

Moreover, unfortunately, quizzes taken in the Student App will not show up in SAM reports, so you will still need to add up the totals OR ask students to retake the quizzes in Reading Counts.

R180 Pull Out Day #2: Save the date! Our second R180 Pull Out Day will happen February 20th at Locke High School from 8:30 – 3:30.

3rd RI & PI Administration: Be sure to administer the RI to all students and the PI to your S44 students by 12/21. Click here for a student-facing RI presentation, click here for a student-facing PI presentation, and click here for a sample RI reflection.

Mid-year R180 Universal Exit Criteria: Please refer to page 7 of the R180 Universal Guide to see exit criteria.

S44 Graduates: Students should exit S44 and be placed in R180 Universal if they meet either of the following criteria:

- PI: Advanced Decoder (green)
- S44 Software: 25 Series Completed

The Resources…

Finals in a R180 Classroom: The End-of-Workshop Assessment should be used as part of your final. To learn how to assign the exam, use the same steps as in this video but select "End of Workshop." DO NOT assign the End-of-Workshop Assessment to S44 students because they don't have access to it when they log in. If you want to give them the End-of-Workshop Assessment, you will need to make paper copies (click here to access those). If you feel that the End-of-Workshop Assessment is not enough for a final, you can also add a vocabulary exam, writing assignment, and/or project.

Course at a Glance Docs & Planning Template: Please review your R180U Course at a Glance to see where you should be during Q3. Remember, the pace picks up, and you will be completing a whole workshop during Q3. Feel free to use the Q3 R180 Planning Template.

Dear R180 teachers,

We are looking forward to our second R180 Pull Out PD day. PLEASE NOTE: we will be offering this PD twice. Once on this day and again on February 27th. Plan to attend the ONE that works best for your school and minimizes instructional interruptions. If there are multiple R180 teachers at your school site, we recommend that you split your teachers between the two dates to alleviate subs on campus.

The focus will of this PD will be on the successful implementation of R180U in your classrooms. More detailed agenda and logistics to come.

If you have any questions, please reach out to me or the literacy curriculum specialist assigned to your school.

Hi Julio,

I hope all is well as you wrap up the calendar year at Venice.

With only one week left of classes, I wanted to send you a gentle reminder to activate Venice's crowdfunding campaign for college tours. This campaign will close on January 3.

Would you be able to send an email today to your teachers and staff to support the campaign and to share it with their networks? Please let me know if you need any help drafting the email.

All funds raised to the campaign go directly to Animo Venice for college access this January. We hope to see some donors come in from Venice! Thank you for supporting this important effort.

Dear Julio,

#GivingTuesday is fast approaching tomorrow. Every year, the day is a huge opportunity for nonprofits to boost their year-end efforts and fundraise. It is a day we encourage Animo Venice CHS to participate by sharing your College Access crowdfunding campaign with your networks – alumni, staff, teachers, parents, local businesses, and friends.

Last year on #GivingTuesday, nonprofits raised nearly $274 million across the country. This year, the day has great potential for your school to fundraise for college access with the End-of-Year campaign.

- I've included here a new toolkit email template for you to personalize and to share with your networks tomorrow on #GivingTuesday.

- Here's Animo Venice CHS's crowdfunding page: https://fundraise.ca.greendot.org/give_ven

Across all Green Dot regions, we received gifts from more than 460 donors and raised nearly $20,000 in just three weeks. The momentum is exciting. We encourage you to share the campaign a second time on #GivingTuesday to reach your goals.

Please let me know how I can help Animo Venice CHS with the campaign. Is there an Assistant Principal who I can connect with as the Main Point of Contact for Venice's campaign? You can reach me by text or phone anytime at 213-330-6088 with questions. I am excited to help make it easy for you to fundraise.

Best regards,

Across all Green Dot regions, we received gifts from more than 460 donors and raised nearly $20,000 in just three weeks. The momentum is exciting. We encourage you to share the campaign a second time on #GivingTuesday to reach your goals.

Please let me know how I can help Animo Venice CHS with the campaign. Is there an Assistant Principal who I can connect with as the Main Point of Contact for Venice's campaign? You can reach me by text or phone anytime at 213-330-6088 with questions. I am excited to help make it easy for you to fundraise.

Hi Julio,

Thank you for sending an email to staff to ask for their help. We appreciate it!

This morning we are starting a 'flash incentive' with a $1,000 gift card for one winner… I will send you more information on that to come shortly. We hope this will help to inspire teachers and their networks to give to Venice.

Best regards,
Lori

Hi Julio,

I hope all is well as you wrap up the calendar year at Venice.

With only one week left of classes, I wanted to send you a gentle reminder to activate Venice's crowdfunding campaign for college tours. This campaign will close on January 3.

Would you be able to send an email today to your teachers and staff to support the campaign and to share it with their networks? Please let me know if you need any help drafting the email.

All funds raised to the campaign go directly to Animo Venice for college access this January. We hope to see some donors come in from Venice! Thank you for supporting this important effort.

Best regards,
Lori

Dear Julio,

#GivingTuesday is fast approaching tomorrow. Every year, the day is a huge opportunity for nonprofits to boost their year-end efforts and fundraise. It is a day we encourage Animo

Venice CHS to participate by sharing your College Access crowdfunding campaign with your networks – alumni, staff, teachers, parents, local businesses, and friends.

Last year on #GivingTuesday, nonprofits raised nearly $274 million across the country. This year, the day has great potential for your school to fundraise for college access with the End-of-Year campaign.

- I've included here a new toolkit email template for you to personalize and to share with your networks tomorrow on #GivingTuesday.

Hello Admins,

Today during my third period, three students walked out of my class before the bell rang and without permission: [redacted] (9th grade), [redacted] (9th grade), and [redacted] (10th grade). I told them to come back and close the door, but they wouldn't listen.

I tried making a referral, but the link doesn't let upload in my computer. I did log the incident onto power point.

I did call their parents and left a voicemail, but I would also like to request detention for all three of them, especially [redacted] and [redacted] because they were running around my class, even when I told them to sit down they wouldn't listen. Thank You.

Sincerely,

Mr. Torres

I would love to meet Spring Semester to discuss:

Weekly pulse check - How are you doing? How are your students? What supports have you received from admin / teachers? Discuss Pos / Negs

Rigor – how to increase / improve results

Team work – how to help each other – 10 min. prep period supports(visit during your prep another freshman teacher)

How can we improve culture / community with our Freshman:

Monthly / Quarterly Deans Lists Award Ceremonies in Gym – plan / support from Administration

ASB Reps in each Advisory – Meet once a month with ASB to discuss events – plan / support from Admin / Ms. Garcia

Semester Competitions – Three As: Academic/Athletic/Aesthetic

Finally, as a freshman advisor, I am willing to follow whatever consistent protocols the 9th grade team has / will set up.

I think we can turn around the freshman class if we work together.

Hi all,

Here are the points we discussed today:
Please feel free to make any suggestions/recommendations:

Criteria for losing a field trip privilege:
-Direct disrespect towards adults- profanity towards adult, throwing objects in class, ...
-Drug Use
-Fighting, play fighting, verbal altercation with another individual
-Ditching class- going to any other class, location without permission, or leaving to the "restroom" and going to another class to distract others, or going to the gym.
-Defiance- EX) consistent use of technology even after student has been reminded to put it away.
OTHERS????

Parent conferences requested:

[redacted]

OTHERS???

MATH SUPPORT HELP IS REQUESTED:
Please stop by at any point during your conference period to the math support class to support Ms. Tartan. She is especially requesting "stop by" for periods 1 and 7. No need to do anything, just stand in the back or walk around as an additional adult in the room.

That's it for now. Thanks Ya'll!

Previous message:

I would love to meet Spring Semester to discuss:

Consistent classroom protocols – entering / exiting / raising hands / transitions / etc. These protocols could be global for our grade level
Weekly pulse check - How are you doing? How are your students? What supports have you received from admin / teachers? Discuss Pos / Negs
Rigor – how to increase / improve results
Team work – how to help each other – 10 min. prep period supports(visit during your prep another freshman teacher)

How can we improve culture / community with our Freshman:

Monthly / Quarterly Deans Lists Award Ceremonies in Gym – plan / support from Administration
ASB Reps in each Advisory – Meet once a month with ASB to discuss events – plan / support from Admin / Ms. Garcia
Semester Competitions – Three As: Academic/Athletic/Aesthetic

Finally, as a freshman advisor, I am willing to follow whatever consistent protocols the 9th grade team has / will set up.

I think we can turn around the freshman class if we work together.

What say you?

Hey everyone,

I had to leave. My wife's mother is not well and I had to go be with her to support her. I will be in Switzerland next week.

I suggest Sarah or another person take up the mantle.

This came on suddenly and I just didn't have time to inform people.

I think it is important to keep meeting.

I will be here the rest of the week but gone after that.

Sincerely,
Mr. John P. KANNOFSKY

Hello,

Thank you very much with providing options.
With what you offered I believe it will be best to Move [redacted] Classes.
So giving him Lara 4th and my class (PE) 6th.

As for [redacted] I would be okay with having her in my 3rd period PE.

[redacted] would be okay with leaving him in 4th.

Hello 9th grade teachers,

I'm working with Ms. Cervantes on some of the scheduling requests that have come in. We need to get feedback from all of the impacted teachers before we make any changes. Please reply just to Jessica and I with any feedback on the changes. Once we hear back from everyone we will make a final decision and get back to the team.

We can move either [redacted] or [redacted] but not both.

[redacted] - request is moved to 5th period PE would mean he was moved to – Sadly not possible to move to 5th HOWEVER we could move him to

PE 2nd period – Rodriguez
Physics 4th period – Lara

[redacted] – request to move him out of PE 4th

PE 6th – Rodriguez
Physics 4th – Lara

For [redacted] there are two options

[redacted] – Request is out of Spanish 3rd

Physics 2nd – Lara

PE 3rd - Rodriguez

Or

Alg 2nd – Castro

PE 3rd - Rodriguez

Spanish 6th – Torres

Just checking in though is he one of the students you all chose for an SST or no? Also if we schedule a parent meeting it would be great to have teachers present to give more context to the situation, are any of you willing/able to be present if I try to schedule the meeting for before or after school?

Good Morning Admin,

As we met to discuss possible SST candidates, we discussed [redacted] progress this year. As you can see, he has the lowest GPA among the entire 9th grade. We are asking for your support with this student.

Can you please hold a parent meeting with the student and the parent to see what is going on with? I met with the parent in September of last year as an early, intervention meeting, but it was very unsuccessful. Mom and dad were present, but it seemed that mom was the only one concerned with the meeting. Dad was not engaged, he would not look at me, and did not seem very interested in anything I had to say.

Can you please meet with parents to discuss the following:

No improvement, no parental support, parent meeting took place, no improvement.

Thank You,

Good Morning Admin,

As we met to discuss possible SST candidates, we discussed [redacted] progress this year. As you can see, he has the lowest GPA among the entire 9th grade. We are asking for your support with this student.

Can you please hold a parent meeting with the student and the parent to see what is going on with? I met with the parent in September of last year as an early, intervention meeting, but it was very unsuccessful. Mom and dad were present, but it seemed that mom was the only one concerned with the meeting. Dad was not engaged, he would not look at me, and did not seem very interested in anything I had to say.

Can you please meet with parents to discuss the following:

No improvement, no parental support, parent meeting took place, no improvement.

Thank You,

Mr. G checked in with [redacted]. And we spoke about this email at our COST meeting yesterday so the other kiddo is on Moreno's radar.

I don't think we've reached out to Tang bout this yet. Also the timing of this email was a bit concerning as it came the last day before winter break at 2pm when students had already been released. I, myself, didn't see the email until the Monday we returned. Luckily it didn't seem like an urgent matter but we're not sure if the Socratic seminar took place the week before she sent the email or on that same day, which also brings up concerns because a topic like this (suicide, mental health related) shouldn't be introduced or discussed so close to a long break when it may trigger students and we have very little way of supporting them.

Just want to make sure we're all on same page.

Hi

[redacted] (11th grade)
[redacted]

I am writing because these two students brought up mental health and personal connections to suicide.

I was able to speak to [redacted] at length and she assured me that she had recovered but mentioned she's been opposed to counseling. She mentioned she still has triggers (confrontation) and showed me how she was shaking.

[redacted] explained that she has a condition (acronym was unclear) but she said she is open to speaking about it.

Both students presented in way that was very mature but just wanted to make sure it is already on radar or what next steps need to be taken

Mr. Stern,
Arturo also skipped out on Mr. Ely's class this week when he had a substitute. I sent an email earlier about this as well but never heard back. Something to keep our eye on.

Ms. Bonsignore,
I just wanted to follow up on our conversation. I spoke with Arturo and he skipped your class because he wasn't prepared for the quiz. I explained to him that you weren't intending to allow him to retake the quiz and he should explain himself to you. I haven't had a chance to check in with Gustavo. He wasn't in 1st period today.

Hi all,

I am following up to ask if anyone has more information regarding the whereabouts of Arturo and Gustavo during period 4 yesterday. I am going to have a conversation with them tomorrow, and if they were skipping my class, they will not be permitted to make up the quiz that they missed. Please let me know if you have any further information before I speak with them.

Thanks!

This seems to be the second class Arturo has skipped out on today then. I am still waiting to hear back from the office if he came late to period 1 today because I was looking for him and he was not in art (which has a sub). I am including the main office in this email so he can be found and this can be addressed.

Good Evening Team

We will make sure to share the notes with all of you, not a problem. Our plan was to sit down with you guys now that the 11th grade team has made some commitments that they will do in class in order to best prepare students.

Please know we did not kept you out of the loop on purpose. We are thankful for everything you guys are already doing and it is important to us to respect/protect your time. I was hoping we can meet on Friday during collaboration so we can bring you guys upto speed. Will that work?

Gracias

Hi Everyone,

I just wanted to follow up on the 11th grade meeting that happened today. With Lily gone, I want to make sure the SPED department and students with IEPs in the 11th grade don't get overlooked. Next time there is a meeting involving logistics for 11th grade testing, projects, or activities, can you please make sure someone in the SPED department is kept in the loop and/or invited to the meeting? We have divided most of the 11th grade workload and it is important we are kept in the loop because we are in contact with parents, assisting with student supports, and participating in IEP logistics. We also want to make sure supports are built into AS so that the students can be successful.

Can you please send us the notes from today's meeting so we can review?

Thanks!

Thank you for the update! Is Friday Grade Level or Dept. Time? I have the GL meeting maker on my calendar, but the Principal's Post says Dept. Time. If it's Dept. time, then Friday works! If it's GL time, maybe we can try to find a time that we are all available later this week (the 3 of us don't teach 7th period).

Thank you!

Hey Sofia,

Thank you SO much for being willing to take this on Sofia. I greatly appreciate this.

In regards to the provider switch. Unfortunately, without the provider's name being changed sometimes Welligent doesn't calculate the services correctly---it is a very bizarre glitch in the system----story of our lives with Welligent. So we would have to change provider now to one of you, and then I will help the credentialed LTS change over to him once he comes on. Tina, I really appreciate you being able to support in changing the name over.

Best,

Thanks Tina!!

Glynis - I am going to send you a list of the individual teachers that should attend each scheduled IEP (based on preps). Once I send the list, can you remove the other teachers from the MM? That way the assigned teacher will know they're required to attend. I think this will help ensure that there is a gen-ed teacher at each meeting.

Hi team,

Please see attached spreadsheet with information on next steps and roles for the 11th grade caseload for IEP writing and facilitation. Please reach out if you have any questions!

- Glynis will need support with the following:
  - I sent the MM to all teachers the student has. I may need support securing the teacher if I don't get responses.
  - Ensuring I didn't schedule an IEP at a time/day that doesn't work for your schedule or for the school. I sent MM for all of the IEPs today. If you can look at these dates and let me know if any are problematic. I will begin creating IEP notifications this week, but want to ensure there are no conflicts.
  - Passing out the IEP notifications to the students, and collecting back from students.
  - Is there a specific form you use for collecting teacher input? I have the one I use, but I don't want to confuse people if you have one you are using. If so, can you please send me either the soft copy or Google link (whichever you are using).

Thank you for all of your help!

Carol is continuing to work with all 12th grade students, as she has been doing all year, in efforts to make sure that they are able to graduate.
Some students have opened up more to us and seek out our help more often than others as [redacted] does which is why you may feel that we are some how giving her extra chances. Please have faith in us and the counseling team that these chances are available to all students as we do our best to work with families and students in order to get to graduation.

Let's meet together with Carol and Jessica if you'd like more information on all of the efforts and meetings that are happening with the 12th grade students. Thank you for your input and ideas around helping [redacted] and for looking out for all the others as well.

Hi Mr. Murcia,

I think this may be cumulative GPAs? There are some kids on the list that I know got higher GPAs last semester than what is listed (J. Garcia, J. Rivas, J. Crutchfield).

Subject: RE: 12th grade 1.97 and below GPA

Hi Mr. Murcia,

I think this may be cumulative GPAs? There are some kids on the list that I know got higher GPAs last semester than what is listed (J. Garcia, J. Rivas, J. Crutchfield).

I spoke with Jesus Felipe in class today and had him call his mom. She says it would be very hard for her to meet at any of the days provided. She could meet earlier on Wednesday before 2:00pm, but that time isn't available.

She also mentioned she already meets with Ms.Moreno regularly. If she already meets with Ms.Moreno regularly should I continue to try and find a time for Mom to come in for a a parent teacher conference? Or should we take him off the list?

Good Afternoon Team:

Just wanted to re-share the link of my personal graduation progress notes for all seniors, specifically the non-graduate list. Link is below:

https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/146pRvHIPHdAYPRnCiemKjDOaMPeYge5eykSdF_6tFDI/edit?usp=sharing

Last year we had a total of 51 non- grads, after the summer we were able to bring the list of non-grads down to 25. As of today, we have 20 (technically 17) non-grads left. I have met with students and we have created a plan to get them to graduation. The non-grad list is located under tab titled, "NG Meetings"

Thank you,

Oh my goodness! I'm glad students are reaching out.

The way the student presented this is exactly correct.

610(610-1)/2 or n(n-1)/2

Hi again everyone!

I'm getting a lot of the same question today, so just want to reiterate …when you click the "Tracking" icon on your Workday home page, you then have to click on the Settings Wheel (on the far right), and "View More…" in order to access the entire report and be able to filter by location/employee. If you stop after only clicking the home page icon, you'll just see a handful of Locke teachers listed.

Instructions (with visuals) are attached here again, for reference. ☺

Subject: 2019 Letter of Intent (LOI) Process - Tracking & Reporting

Hi all!

As we mentioned in early December, the 2019 Letter of Intent (LOI)* process has moved into Workday!

On Tuesday (1/15/19), all GDPSCA teachers- and counselors-of-record will receive an email requesting they complete an LOI via a notification in their Workday Inbox. The initial deadline remains 2/14/19, with changes accepted through 3/1/19.

You will be able to access tracking information via an icon on your Workday home page (this icon should appear on Tuesday…):

Attached are step-by-step instructions for navigating the tracking document…and a couple of things to note:

- In addition to returning or not returning, we still ask teachers/counselors to indicate if they are interested in transferring, but we no longer ask them to list the specific schools in which they are interested. Since those interested in transferring were not limited to reaching out only to the schools they listed (nor should schools use that info to 'recruit'), this information was not being used in any meaningful way.
- When a teacher or counselor makes a 'change" to his/her LOI (after the initial submission), the relevant Principal/Assistant Principal(s) will receive a notification to their Workday Inbox. (Notifications are not being sent for the initial submissions – just for changes, and only to the relevant Principal/Assistant Principal.) HC/HR will also receive notification of all changes.

This evening, teachers/counselors were sent step-by-step instructions on how to complete (or change) the LOI (and they are attached here as an FYI). We are also working on uploading these to the HC and HR Connect pages.

I will remain the main point of contact for all things LOI, but if something is urgent and I'm not available, you can also contact Sheena.Hess@greendot.org and/or Workday@greendot.org. (Please do not contact Nerdfone as they will redirect you to me.)

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

For those of you who are new to Green Dot, the Letter of Intent (LOI) is a document sent annually to all Green Dot teachers- and counselors-of-record (per the AMU contract) asking if they plan to return (or not) to Green Dot for the following school year, and if they are interested in a possible transfer to another Green Dot site for the following school year.*

Hi Tina,

We have discussed that Carlson is not an option since he returns next week, and Carlson takes 1-2 week to process, and LAUSD was closed for the break so there processing wouldn't happen during that time. This is why we are looking for a teacher.

Best,
Glynis

If you remember, on the day mom came in for the IEP meeting, Welligent shut down so she was not able to sign it. I would like to print the IEP today and give it to the office so mom can sign it. In the meeting we decided on Carlson home so I am confused why we are looking for a teacher still to provide services. Aren't those provided through Carlson home.

Hi teachers,

[redacted] (10th grader) is home due to a leg injury and will be out through January 15. Consequently, for the 1st two weeks that we're back in school (1/7-1/11 & 1/14-1/18) we need to provide him with home instruction. Due to the timing, our option for LAUSD to provide homeschooling is not feasible. This is where we need one general education teacher to support him at home.

Details:

- Time commitment: 5-hours per week involving about 1-2 hours of planning/collaboration with Gauthier and 3-4 hours of direct instruction (this is up to you based on what you think he needs).
- Pay: $35 per hour (5-hours of total per week).
- Duration of commitment: First two school weeks of January
- Location: Instruction would need to be at [redacted] home since his cast renders him immobile. [redacted] lives in Culver City – nearest major cross street is [redacted]

- Side-note: Ms. Z (former AV teacher) provided home instruction for a student last year. She had a 7th period prep so she was able to schedule the home instruction within her work day. It can be done on the weekends also if that is better for your schedule.

If you're feeling inclined to help support our student while he's recovering (and want a little extra $$) please contact Julio and myself. Mom has all the work he needs to complete and Ms. Gauthier can also support in structuring the lessons. Please let us know ASAP so we can help set you up.

Thanks in advance and HAPPY WINTER BREAK!!!!!!

[redacted] mom is coming in today at 1pm to sign the IEP. I have offered to get [redacted] 2.5 hours this Saturday at his home so he can get some of his work done by the deadline for semester one work. Is it a possibility to offer teachers the ability to take just one session of 2.5 hours so it is not all falling on one person. I would be willing to put the email out there to our grade level teachers with a personalized touch.

Subject: [redacted] - home schooling

Hi teachers,

[redacted] (10th grader) is home due to a leg injury and will be out through January 15. Consequently, for the 1st two weeks that we're back in school (1/7-1/11 & 1/14-1/18) we need to provide him with home instruction. Due to the timing, our option for LAUSD to provide homeschooling is not feasible. This is where we need one general education teacher to support him at home.

Details:

- Time commitment: 5-hours per week involving about 1-2 hours of planning/collaboration with Gauthier and 3-4 hours of direct instruction (this is up to you based on what you think he needs).
- Pay: $35 per hour (5-hours of total per week).
- Duration of commitment: First two school weeks of January
- Location: Instruction would need to be at [redacted] home since his cast renders him immobile. [redacted] nearest major cross street is [redacted].

- [redacted]
- Side-note: Ms. Z (former AV teacher) provided home instruction for a student last year. She had a 7th period prep so she was able to schedule the home instruction within her work day. It can be done on the weekends also if that is better for your schedule.

If you're feeling inclined to help support our student while he's recovering (and want a little extra $$) please contact Julio and myself. Mom has all the work he needs to complete and Ms. Gauthier can also support in structuring the lessons. Please let us know ASAP so we can help set you up.

Thanks in advance and HAPPY WINTER BREAK!!!!!!

Hi Tina,

We have discussed that Carlson is not an option since he returns next week, and Carlson takes 1-2 week to process, and LAUSD was closed for the break so there processing wouldn't happen during that time. This is why we are looking for a teacher.

Best,
Glynis

In the meeting we decided on Carlson home so I am confused why we are looking for a teacher still to provide services. Aren't those provided through Carlson home.

Hi teachers,

[redacted] (10th grader) is home due to a leg injury and will be out through January 15. Consequently, for the 1st two weeks that we're back in school (1/7-1/11 & 1/14-1/18) we need to provide him with home instruction. Due to the timing, our option for LAUSD to provide homeschooling is not feasible. This is where we need one general education teacher to support him at home.

Details:

- Time commitment: 5-hours per week involving about 1-2 hours of planning/collaboration with Gauthier and 3-4 hours of direct instruction (this is up to you based on what you think he needs).
- Pay: $35 per hour (5-hours of total per week).
- Duration of commitment: First two school weeks of January
- Location: Instruction would need to be at [redacted]s home since his cast renders him immobile. [redacted] – nearest major cross street is [redacted]

- [redacted]
- Side-note: Ms. Z (former AV teacher) provided home instruction for a student last year. She had a 7th period prep so she was able to schedule the home instruction within her work day. It can be done on the weekends also if that is better for your schedule.

If you're feeling inclined to help support our student while he's recovering (and want a little extra $$) please contact Julio and myself. Mom has all the work he needs to complete and Ms. Gauthier can also support in structuring the lessons. Please let us know ASAP so we can help set you up.

Thanks in advance and HAPPY WINTER BREAK!!!!!!

[redacted] mom is coming in today at 1pm to sign the IEP. I have offered to get Armando 2.5 hours this Saturday at his home so he can get some of his work done by the deadline for semester one work. Is it a possibility to offer teachers the ability to take just one session of 2.5 hours so it is not all falling on one person. I would be willing to put the email out there to our grade level teachers with a personalized touch.

Hi team,
Since Carlson is out on break already, and it usually takes a week to process, he likely won't get assigned until the week of 1/14---and he returns on 1/15. It is best to use a Venice teacher since services won't get rendered if we use Carlson.

Hey Miss,

I called [redacted] Dad and let him know about [redacted] skipping class 2nd period and appearing to be high after school. Dad was upset and said he would speak to him and check him out when he got home. I informed dad that [redacted] would need to attend detention today for being truant during 2nd period. I spoke to [redacted] just now and let him know of the detention as well as the mandatory tutoring tomorrow for your class.

Please let me know if he does not attend.

Hi Ms. Smith,

I am currently working on his schedule as I need to pull him from Apex.

I understand your concerns with [redacted]. He is one of my juniors who I have noticed is lacking motivation, particularly this year. I have also had a few one on one convos with him about his grades and lack of progress in Apex. We had a parent meeting earlier in the semester and Ms. Durrett also tried following up with mom after that meeting.

Please know that I strongly believe [redacted] is academically capable of being successful in all his classes. He is very bright. At this time he seems to have his focus on other career interests and doesn't see the connection to his academics.

I'm including Ms. Rubin in this email because we may want to look into providing him some grade level supports and help connect with him a bit more. I do plan on reaching out to mom next week to schedule another parent meeting but a plan as a team may be a good way to start.

Thanks!

Hi Jessica—

I have a real concern about [redacted] —11th grader—in Pre-Calculus.

He failed first semester with barely above a 50%, was anywhere from a few minutes to a half-hour late every single day (5th period) and never did any homework or classwork. Today he was 37 minutes late to class for iReady testing and was on other websites during the session. Last semester I told his mother at BTSN that he was already demonstrating these habits and then also communicated his lack of progress during the semester. She seemed concerned in person but I never heard back from my phone call.

I don't have confidence that he will fare any better this semester. It doesn't seem productive to have him sit through the semester if he is headed toward a failing grade again. Is there another grade for a lower math class that he might need to make up? Anything in Geometry…because he would have more knowledge about that area in particular from our first semester.

All good I just wanted to make sure we had followed up ☺

This is the email I sent to her in response. But I don't remember what you and I spoke about regarding the actual concern about him in math? I plan on scheduling parent meetings for most of my kiddos next week. But what are your thoughts about him in Pre-Calc? He got a D in Geometry, but I really don't think he needs to go in there to retake. At this point he's not very motivated so putting him in a class to retake for a-g purposes seems somewhat pointless. And I think he would think so too.

Hi, Julio!

On Friday, Dec. 21st, my father-in-law is going to be sworn in as Presiding Justice of Division Five of the Second District Court of Appeal in California. I am planning on joining him in San Francisco that day for the swearing in, so I will be absent from work. I will make appropriate arrangements with Wendy for the GDCAP that the students will be taking that day. I just wanted to let you know why I'll be out, considering that I normally wouldn't want to miss a day of exams.

Best,
Sara

Subject: Action Required: Kayne Scholars Class of 2019 Student Registration Form

Hello everyone,

We hope you are doing well.

Friendly reminder, please make sure you select 2-3 students and complete the Registration Form by Friday, December 7th for the Kayne Scholars Program.

As discussed during AGDD, the Kayne Scholars is a partnering program that supports first-generation, low-income students in California advance their potential through college graduation and pivot into sustainable, meaningful careers in STEM or business related fields.

COHORT 5 ELIGIBILITY

- First-generation (neither parent or guardian has obtained a four-year degree)
- Enrollment in the California State University of University of California system
- Demonstrated ambition, grit, and dedication to persevere through college and pursue a meaningful career in a STEM or business related field
- Demonstrated academic achievement and leadership potential
- 3.0 minimum GPA
- Demonstrated financial need (Pell and Cal Grant recipient, federal loan offers, and work study)
- Alignment with core values of the Kayne Scholars program including motivation, integrity, engagement, community, and curiosity.
- A desire to give back to his or her community upon college graduation
- Ability to engage in a rigorous program, maximize opportunities, attend all events/workshops, and remain accountable to expectations set forth by ScholarMatch, America Needs You, UCLA Writing Programs, and the Ric & Suzanne Kayne Foundation.

For more Kayne Scholars resources, please refer to the Kayne Scholars section on the Financial Aid/Scholarship Case Study deck from AGDD.

The HO Scholarship Committee will be sending 8 nominees for this scholarship on February 7th. These 8 nominees will be required to attend the Kayne Scholars Nominee Open House on February 21st. From there, the Kayne committee will notify students of their next steps for the Kayne Scholars Interview Day.

The following is our process to get our 8 nominees:

1. Counselors select 2-3 students who meet the above criteria to complete the Registration Form by December 7th.
2. Students who have completed the Registration Form will then receive an email invitation to apply to the Kayne Scholars Program.
3. Invited students must complete the Kayne Scholars Program application online by December 21st.
4. The HO Scholarship Committee will interview selected students at their school sites between January 16th – January 23rd
5. The HO scholarship Committee will convene on January 30, 2019 to select 8 nominees and submit to Kayne by February 7th.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Sally or me.

I will be logging some other cases of potential plagiarism. They have been identified in turnitin.com but seem less blatant. I want to make sure it is in powerschool in event it comes up again however I don't think some of these cases like the other 2 require admin follow up. I will be logging the comments/student follow up.

In event there are additional clear cut cases that come up I will follow up my log with email.

Let me know if this is best way to approach!

Hey, all!

Just a reminder that you will not need any materials for the advisory curriculum tomorrow. You will only need the PPT. You will be doing the Module 0, Lesson 5, which contains pointers about how to develop note-taking and study skills.

You'll do slides 3-5, then skip ahead to slides 12-15. I think this lesson should be less time-intensive than previous ones.

Best,
Sara

Thank you for letting us know. I have a standing meeting with Mr. Moreno on Thursday let me check in with him so we can find out what happen and why the curriculum was not delivered.

The expectation is that we are all on the same page and that everyone is delivering the curriculum. Not sure what happen and why he never delivered the curriculum. As far as I know he never communicated he needed anything and all material were delivered to him.

Hi team,
A concern was brought up during our grade level meeting on Friday and I was not sure how to respond. Mary tried using the advisory lesson to make a connection to her curriculum during the 7th period class. A few students said that they did not do a lesson during Mr. Moreno's advisory and were "just kickin' it." So that we are all on the same page, are these lessons recommended or are they an expectation? I feel making connections during classes could be an amazing way to support the importance of the lessons, but understand if this is not a curriculum that is expected for every advisory to follow.

Here's a link to the advisory PowerPoint for tomorrow:
https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/19uGWZYb8dA52y4XJshEKAcsYk5DTGzUkXYMxGtsN58s/edit?usp=sharing

With a measured pace, it should take about 40 minutes (including about 10 minutes for students to take the survey at the end on their phones). There are some basic instructions and time guidelines in the notes section of each slide.

Let me know if you need any support or have any questions.

Also, Gerry, Jose, and I will do some walk-throughs on Friday. Please make sure you have your objectives written on the board. KIDDING. We're just going to see how it's going.

Hi Jessica,

Happy new year! Hope you had a great break.

Thanks for following up. I just learned that schools have access to their transcripts at different dates based on if they requested earlier grade storing or not, so the deadline might not work for everyone.

January 22nd will work! Please mark your completion in Google Classroom as before, even though it will say you're submitting it "late."

Let me know if you have other questions.

Hi Narineh,

Happy new year!

I see that the a-g verification for 10th-12th is due on January 16th. Please know that Carol and I will not have access to updated transcripts for our students until Monday, Jan 14th (really, Jan 15th since 14th is AGDD) which then only gives us 1-2 days to review and submit verification data.

Is it possible to extend the deadline for us to Tuesday, Jan 22nd? This would give us at least one week to review transcripts and submit data.

Thanks!

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Hi admin team,

I am writing because I am concerned about the drug incident that occurred during 2nd period on Tuesday,s 1/15/19.

This incident demonstrates the impact drugs/drug paraphernalia has on our school culture and instruction.

The smell of marijuana was so pungent that it lasted beyond the class period. The smell was significant to the majority of students in the class in addition to the three security guards who were involved in investigating/searching students.

While other students were being searched, [redacted] was observed showing extremely nervous behaviors. [redacted] was caught attempting to obstruct evidence by hiding/get rid of the vape pen in the trash.

In searching students, a significant amount of instruction time was lost. These minutes really feel lost given the result of the incident. As a teacher, I feel an obligation to follow up with the class in terms of the incident. In addition to the impact this incident has had on loss of instruction, this incident greatly impacts the culture of the 10th grade class and the school as [redacted] was sent back to class for the remainder of the day

According to PowerSchool, this is [redacted] second drug related incident.

This is a clear offense, as it is outlined in our expulsion Matrix, category, number 9:

. Possessed, offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any drug paraphernalia.

According to our discipline matrix, this falls under the severe category:

e ediate attention)	1. Weapons, Drug(s) paraphernalia, gang language, Harassment/bullying, Illegal behavior, fighting, Profanity directed at adult, Defacing school property	Teacher: Any items listed under Severe category should be immediately referred to Administration/Main Office/CSO. 1. Complete Online Behavior Referral	Admin: Consequence can include: Administrative review, suspension, recommendation for DRB, parent notification/ conference, Grade Level Conference, Log entries, student-student or student-teacher mediation, restorative assignment.

Can you please follow up with me regarding how this situation will be handled?

I appreciate your support with this matter.

Good morning team,
I've been thinking a lot about this email from Ms. Tang and here is how I think we should respond

Ms. Tang,
Thank you for sharing your concern with us. We understand your frustration of the loss of instructional time and want you to know that we did everything we could to handle this quickly and with as few disruptions to your class as possible. Once [redacted] was identified as being the cause of the smell he was pulled from class and searched. He did not have any drugs on his person and did not appear to be under the influence. What he did have and what he tried to throw away was the charging part of a vape pen with no vape attached to it. When Mr. Stern spoke to him he was very apologetic and when we called his mother they both got very emotional and asked for extra supports which we are doing our best to provide through our cost team. We held [redacted] from the remainder of class as a consequence for his actions. We also spoke to [redacted] at length about the impact of his actions on the other people in the class.
Due to the fact that [redacted] had no actual drugs on his person and was not under the influence we followed our policy which was shared with everyone earlier in the year and we returned him back to his next class.
As we shared on Wednesday our priority is to have students in classes learning. We understand that you believe his returning to class had a negative impact on the tenth grade students. We can't always control the perception of others, the best we can do is support each other and get them back on track with the topic. If a student asked you why [redacted] got to go back to class the best you can say because of confidentiality is "I trust the admin team handled the situation appropriately. Now let's get back to work." Or if a student says there are no consequences at this school you can say "I trust that the admin team treats every situation fairly and that they handled the situation appropriately now let's get back to work."

We absolutely agree that you should address this with the class and we can support you with that just let us know when you will be talking to the group and we can come in as well.

This incident demonstrates the impact drugs/drug paraphernalia has on our school culture and instruction.

The smell of marijuana was so pungent that it lasted beyond the class period. The smell was significant to the majority of students in the class in addition to the three security guards who were involved in investigating/searching students.

While other students were being searched, [redacted] was observed showing extremely nervous behaviors. [redacted] was caught attempting to obstruct evidence by hiding/get rid of the vape pen in the trash.

In searching students, a significant amount of instruction time was lost. These minutes really feel lost given the result of the incident. As a teacher, I feel an obligation to follow up with the class in terms of the incident. In addition to the impact this incident has had on loss of instruction, this incident greatly impacts the culture of the 10th grade class and the school as [redacted] was sent back to class for the remainder of the day

According to PowerSchool, this is [redacted]'s second drug related incident.

This is a clear offense, as it is outlined in our expulsion Matrix, category, number 9:

. Possessed, offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any drug paraphernalia.

According to our discipline matrix, this falls under the severe category:

Severe (Immediate Admin attention)	1. Weapons, Drug(s) paraphernalia, gang language, Harassment/bullying, Illegal behavior, fighting, Profanity directed at adult, Defacing school property	Teacher: Any items listed under Severe category should be immediately referred to Administration/Main Office/CSO. 1. Complete Online Behavior Referral	Admin: Consequence can include: Administrative review, suspension, recommendation for DRB, parent notification/ conference, Grade Level Conference, Log entries, student-student or student-teacher mediation, restorative assignment.

Can you please follow up with me regarding how this situation will be handled?

I appreciate your support with this matter.

Hi admin team,

I am writing because I am concerned about the drug incident that occurred during 2nd period on Tuesday,s 1/15/19.

Hi Josh,

I appreciate the time and thought that went into this response however it does not change the concern for the growing use of drugs that are happening on our school campus. I am concerned about the timeliness of the response to a drug related incident in addition to lack of communication to me as the individual teacher and to the grade level in terms of supports for this particular student.

I am confident in my teaching abilities to redirect the class after a significant issue like this. I felt successful that we were able to still cover content given the amount of time that was spent pulling students out due to the extreme smell of marijuana that was in the classroom in addition to the incident of [redacted] attempting to conceal possession of drugs/ drug paraphernalia while three security members were involved in investigating the issue.

The pep rally on Friday brought up the larger issue of drug use that is occurring on campus. There were numerous students who were blatantly under the influence of drugs. This is at the end of the day. In seeing this, it becomes very complicated for staff members to make statements such as "I trust the admin team handled the situation appropriately." In my 13 years working at this school, I feel that I have and continue to be teamstrong when it comes to responding to student talk around inconsistencies in consequences.

Overhearing [redacted] say to [redacted] and [redacted] "my backpack smells like weed" and as I walked towards where the students were seated, [redacted] was aware of my proximity said "15 dollars for 300" is reflective of the drug culture that no longer is just something outside of the school day or classrooms but inside our school and learning environments. [redacted] facial expressions (and gesture to me that it was [redacted] and not him speaking) confirmed [redacted] was speaking of drugs. [redacted] appears to be under the influence on a regular basis. In reading the logs for this student, he has a history of being under the influence. These are examples of why I was and am continuing to reach out as a concerned member of this school community.

During the most recent discipline PDs, multiple teachers expressed the need for restorative practices to be separate from consequences. Given the incident of drugs in my class period in addition to these most recent and more frequent observations, I am inquiring when the growing drug issue can be revisited with the whole staff and follow up with the teacher recommendations for developing and implementing both effective consequences and our restorative practices around drug related incidents.

Ms. Tang,
Apologies for the delay in response.

Thank you for sharing your concern with us. We understand your frustration of the loss of instructional time and want you to know that we did everything we could to handle this quickly and with as few disruptions to your class as possible. Once [redacted] was identified as being the cause of the smell he was pulled from class and searched. He did not have any drugs on his person and did not appear to be under the influence. What he did have and what he tried to throw away was the charging part of a vape pen with no vape attached to it. When Mr. Stern spoke to him he was very apologetic and when we called his mother they both got very emotional and asked for extra supports which we are doing our best to provide through our COST team. We held [redacted] from the remainder of your class as a consequence for his actions. We also spoke to [redacted] at length about the impact of his actions on the other people in the class.

Due to the fact that [redacted] had no actual drugs on his person and was not under the influence we followed our policy which was shared with everyone earlier in the year and we returned him back to his next class.

As we shared on Wednesday our priority is to have students in classes learning. We understand that you believe his returning to his next class had a negative impact on the tenth grade students. We can't always control the perception of others, the best we can do is support each other and get them back on track with the topic.

If a student asked you why [redacted] got to go to his next class the best you can say because of confidentiality is "I trust the admin team handled the situation appropriately. Now let's get back to work." Or if a student says there are no consequences at this school you can say "I trust that the admin team treats every situation fairly and that they handled the situation appropriately now let's get back to work."

We absolutely agree that you should address this with the class and we can support you with that just let us know when you will be talking to the group and we can come in as well.

Can you please review the bottom of this to make sure my messaging doesn't sound off? Thanks!

Good Morning Ms. Gomez,

Per [redacted] IEP meeting last week, we have looked into the possible schedule change you requested. Please see the new projected schedule below.

1. Academic Success
2. Chemistry
3. US History
4. Alg. 2 (Rombro)
5. Spanish 2
6. English 11
7. College Readiness

As you can see, many of his classes have changed as it is difficult to make schedule changes this time of the year. This may be something [redacted] is not happy with and may choose to stay in Ms. Shariff's class for the sake of keeping his schedule the way it is now, which we understand and can accommodate.

Please let me know before end of day this Friday (12/21) what you and [redacted] decide to move forward with. This way the schedule change can be made as soon as we return from winter break.

Also, please know that, as previously mentioned, this request is not a typical request we grant students. Since we're a small school, we can't accommodate student requests for specific teachers, therefore this request is one we can grant only due to [redacted] needs and your special request. I hope this can be clearly communicated to Damian so other students don't get the wrong impression and think this is something we can grant anyone. I will also speak to [redacted] briefly about this if we move forward with the change.

Thank you.

Hi!

I had a nice conversation yesterday with [redacted] with regard to her options for hire with us:

First, since we cannot do anything with her directly until her Preliminary Bio credential posts with the CTC, I asked her to please register with DirectEd/obtain 30-day sub permit ASAP, so VEN can hire her as a 30-day sub through DirectEd for a 1/7/18.

Second, I explained that once her Prelim cred posts, we can then work on getting her the Limited

Assignment Permit to teach Chemistry for up to one calendar year. I think she is planning to take the Chem CSET in that time frame and obtain that authorization as well. Once we have this permit, we can move her from a 30-day sub via DirectEd to a direct hire with us. (The 30-days should be plenty of time to do this…)

Third, I explained that given HR's new mandate around not hiring LTS direct for open positions…when we are able to hire her direct, it will be as teacher-of-record and she will be on our salary scale (which she is familiar with). I also explained that because she is starting after the 1st of the school year, she will not have protections under the AMU contract, and technically could be terminated at any time (and vice versa)…which she also understood. I let her know that if she is still teacher-of-record at the start of the 2019-20 school year, then she becomes protected under the contract.

So there we have it…

Great Idea Adriana and thank you for the reminder. In an effort to stream line the process and not reinvent the wheel. I'm going to send the team the descriptions that we already have that were slightly updated and sent out last year. That way people can take some time and look at them and come prepared with some suggestions before the ALT meeting at the end of the month.

Look for an email with descriptions later today.

Hi all,

I copied AMU and ALT to remind everyone that we have been aspiring to have leadership position job descriptions completed, promoted to fill the positions early so that Stipend committee can get to work and finish before the end of the school year. Can we add this to the next ALT meeting agenda? We need to create a timeline to stay on track.

Hello all!

[redacted] was very unfocused and distractable today. She walked in and said a passive comment to me about how "Mr. Liebster doesn't want me in his class back-to-back so he switched my schedule" with an F-bomb thrown in somewhere for good measure. She did none of her work and talked back to me all period. She ended last semester this way too, and the schedule change today seemed to change very little for the better. [redacted] was very fixated about which of her friends were in the new classes with her, and my reminders that she's here to learn changed nothing about that. I would appreciate support with this situation in whatever form you are able to offer it.

Thanks in advance for the collaboration,
Franz

Hello friends,

[redacted] talked to me today about her schedule change and how she felt she was fine in the back to back classes. She now has first and second with [redacted] I think and is worried about that. HOWEVER she seemd like she was doing okay and I know we think the change is best.

What are your thoughts? I made no promises to [redacted] other than that I would talk to the two of you about it. Maybe we can brainstorm some messaging for her so she understands how we are hoping this will help her. Liebster how was she in class today?

Hey Julio,

I am wondering when AMU time is this month.

On this link:
https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1R1rsSJGQcwRiF5Mmkkhs9sMsQY_lVNRx_8H0W1qFI70/edit?usp=sharing
It says Dec. 12

I had planned on that day but I do not have it in my Outlook calendar.

Please advise.

BTW Josh Rombro is now the other AMU rep.

Confirmed!

I think about an hour should suffice. I'll spend about 10 minutes giving you an overview of who we are and the details of the partnership, then about 20-30 minutes demo-ing the platform, and the remaining 15-20 minutes answering any questions and/or discussing next steps.

A projector would be ideal. I can connect my laptop (PC).

I'll plan on arriving by 1:40-45 so I can set up the technology and ensure everything works (I have severe trust issues). Let me know if it's okay to arrive earlier (in case the space is being used for another meeting and this is not an option).

Looking forward to meeting you all in person.

Dear Charter School Leader:

This email pertains to the Annual Performance-Based Oversight Visit scheduled on January 10, 2019. Due to the work stoppage, the oversight visit must be rescheduled.

As you are probably aware, the District is experiencing an employee work stoppage. District staff are needed to provide immediate support to students, families and administrators at school sites. The Charter Schools Division (CSD) Staff have been temporarily reassigned to District schools in an effort to best support schools and ensure student safety.

Therefore, CSD oversight visits during the work stoppage will be cancelled and rescheduled. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have for you are and your team, and thank you for your understanding. We look forward to rescheduling the visit at a mutually agreeable time in the near future.

We will reach back out to you once normal business operations resume for our office.

Thank you,

Dear Julio and Damon:

I hope you are doing well! As you know, the Charter Schools Division (CSD) annual performance-based oversight visit to Ánimo Venice Charter High is coming up soon. The purpose of this email is to provide you with some reminders and additional information regarding the annual oversight visit to your school scheduled for Thursday, January 10, 2019.

Guiding Questions
Please review the attached Guiding Questions for Reflection document and provide the CSD with the school's detailed written responses, via email to me, by COB on Monday,

January 7, 2019.

Schedule for the Day of the Visit

Please review the attached visit schedule, including the asterisked notes within the document. In designing this schedule, the CSD Team has endeavored to be the least disruptive to the learning process as possible while still ensuring that we are able to complete all visit activities effectively and efficiently. Please let me know by COB on Monday, January 7, 2019. If you have any questions, change requests, or concerns about this schedule.

Visit Activities

- Morning Meeting: To prepare for this meeting's discussions, please review the guiding questions provided as an attachment to this email and the school's written responses, as well as the attached Annual Performance-Based Oversight Visit Report - 2018-2019 School Year template, which was also provided previously in the oversight preparation packet sent out by the CSD to all schools on September 24, 2018 and September 25, 2018 (Updated). Please ensure that the school's Leadership Team is prepared to engage fully in the discussions. Board members (as long as the number of members present does not reach quorum) are welcome to participate in this meeting as well as the other activities of the visit.

- Classroom Observations: The CSD will attempt to visit as many classrooms as possible during the visit. It is unnecessary to develop a schedule or plan for this activity; we will devise a plan on the morning of the visit. The CSD requests that school leaders accompany the CSD Team members on the classroom visits.

- Special Education Program Review: The CSD Team member conducting this review will request the school principal/director to engage in a discussion of the school's systems and procedures for ensuring full compliance with special education requirements.

- FISCAL REVIEW AND DEBRIEFING: The school's assigned Fiscal Services Manager, Bobby Chua will be conducting the Fiscal Review and Debrief. If you have any questions regarding the Fiscal Review and/or Debrief, please contact your assigned Fiscal Services Manager directly at bobby.chua@lausd.net.

- Document Review: Throughout the day, during the designated time(s) for this activity and at any other time available, the CSD Team will review the school's documentation binders. It is critical that the principal/director and/or other leadership staff remain available to answer questions and address concerns that may arise in relation to this activity. Please ensure that the binders have been prepared in accordance with the Visit Preparation Guide; the CSD will not be able to review documents that are not presented as described. For your reference and use, I am attaching hereto copies of key documents already sent in the oversight packet, including the Certification of Clearances document template. Please ensure that a copy of the duly signed Clearances document, as well as the original, is included in the appropriate binder – the CSD Team will use this copy for keeping notes.

- Visit Debriefing: At the end of the visit day, the CSD Team will meet again with the School Leadership Team in order to debrief the events of the day. Please note that, although the CSD will not provide the school with a written report on the day of the visit, the CSD Team will strive to send out our report within approximately three weeks.

Logistics

In order to conduct all of the necessary visit activities, it is very helpful if the school can provide us with a dedicated and private space for the day. Ideally, the room or location will provide an electrical outlet for our computers. Please also provide us with any other logistical information (e.g. parking options) that may be relevant to the visit.

Thank you in advance for your time. We appreciate all that you and your team will do to prepare for the visit! I look forward to visiting with you as well as learning about the great things happening at your school this year.

I just wanted to send a quick Animo Voices Competition reminder that the deadline for school sites to select their top two entries is next Friday, January 18th. We hope you are finding the writing competition planning toolkit helpful as it provides resources for coordinating school site selection of winning entries. The students your school selects will each win a Kindle Fire, have their writing published in a GD wide publication and will be invited to a fun community celebration this spring AND the teacher of winning students will be able to fulfill a $100 Amazon gift card for classroom supplies. Your students' winning entries will be entered into the orgwide competition for a chance to win exciting college scholarships and iPads.

Once your department has selected the two winning submissions for your school, you will have until the end of the month to help the top submissions revise and submit their final entries to us by Thursday, January 31st. We will send out a submission form by the end of next week. The form will require the top two winning students to submit their 1000 word (or less) entry and identify the teacher that most supported them with their writing competition entry. Please coordinate with your ELA dept to determine how you want to support students with submitting their entries as ONLY the top two student winners should receive access to the form. You may want to designate one adult on campus to support students with submitting their entries for the final round of the competition.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or concerns.

Have a wonderful Friday,

Thanks.

Hi Jef,
Just following up on a few students and providing you with an update on some of the students that will remain in Apex for semester 2

[redacted] Spanish 1A- Can you please provide me with his grade sheet? He will remain in Apex and work on Eng 9B. I have enrolled him in the Eng 9B section.

2. [redacted] Spanish 1A- Can you please provide me with his grade sheet? He will remain in Apex and work on Spanish 1B. I have enrolled him in the Span 1B section.
3. [redacted] Spanish 1A (not showing up in APEX website but still on attendance roster)- I enrolled him back into the course and he should be done. Can you please provide me with his grade sheet? He will remain in Apex to complete Eng 9B. I will enroll him in Eng 9B when I have his grade sheet.
4. [redacted] English 9B pending final exam- what is the status of final exam? I am scheduled to remove him from Apex once I have his final grade sheet.
5. [redacted] World History B pending final exam - - what is the status of final exam? I am scheduled to remove her from Apex once I have his final grade sheet.

The following Apex students will also remain in Apex per a conversation I have had with them and the amount of progress they have made in apex so far:

[redacted]- she just joined apex last semester and has a few classes to complete

[redacted]- she has completed most of the online assignments and is missing mostly written assignments, can you please work with her to complete what she is missing.

[redacted]- Still deciding on whether she should stay.

Please note I will also include all of these updates on the shared Apex google sheet shared with you at beginning of the school year.

Can you summon him to the counseling office to give him his new schedule? Also, [redacted] has not been here yet this semester and I now have two new schedules for him. Should I send them back to you?

Just keeping you in the loop regarding ARC. I haven't received payment for my October hours. I submitted my time sheet on time and completed it just as Annie requested. I've already let Annie know and I know she's frustrated with the way these things get processed as well so she is trying to be as helpful as possible, but I wanted to loop you in as well.

Good morning ALT,
As we prepare for our meeting coming up at the end of the month please look through the attached Leadership Position Descriptions. These descriptions were ones that we had worked on and sent out last year. If you see any changes that you would like to suggest please add a comment to the Doc and we can discuss the changes at the ALT meeting. If there is a position that we are lacking a description for please also note that and if you are able to add in some of the duties for that position that would be helpful too.

Thank you in advance for your hard work.

Yes that will work just making sure you do have students that will want to do it since the event is on the 1st.

Julio,

I'm hoping to take some of the YBA kids to this and I'm open to recruiting other 11th and 10th (even seniors). Charli says there's plenty of room on the bus they're providing.

Please let me know if this is something you approve of me taking kiddos to. I can begin recruiting tomorrow in 11th and 10th grade advisories.

Thanks!

Hello Awesome Dotters!

There is a super cool event on January 1th for students interested in business. It is a daylong experiential event on the Cal State Dominguez Campus, where several community business leaders will be speaking and holding workshops for high school youth. The event is sponsored by Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship. I have included a sample of what last year's event looked like. The organization is willing to sponsor a bus for transportation. We have room for 50 students which can be 1 school or 2 schools. If you have a group of students you would like to bring please email me by the end of the day on Monday 12/10/18.

Details:
When: January 11 9am-2 pm

Hi Everyone,

Just a reminder that the twins NEED to use a break-pass in order to leave the classroom. This includes needing to get something from another classroom or from the office (this counts as a break). Today, [redacted] came to 202 on multiple occasions throughout the day and he did not have a break pass. Additionally, they are not permitted to take technology out of 202, as we now have two computers missing.

Thanks!

Hi Everyone,

We have created a plan to better structure [redacted] break system. Attached is a sheet of break passes. Each of them will be given 1 sheet of break passes a week (6 passes total) and it is their responsibility to manage the passes. They should not be given a break or allowed to leave the classroom without a pass, including leaving to get snacks. To take a break, they need to fill out the pass and it hand it to the teacher. Each break should not be longer than 5 minutes. If they run out of passes, you can give them an in-class break at your discretion.

We will be meeting with them tomorrow to review the process. We will be taking care of giving them their break passes at the start of each week.

Please reach out with any questions or concerns.

Hi Everyone,

We have created a plan to better structure [redacted] break system. Attached is a sheet of break passes. Each of them will be given 1 sheet of break passes a week (6 passes total) and it is their responsibility to manage the passes. They should not be given a break or allowed to leave the classroom without a pass, including leaving to get snacks. To take a break, they need to fill out the pass and it hand it to the teacher. Each break should not be longer than 5 minutes. If they run out of passes, you can give them an in-class break at your discretion.

We will be meeting with them tomorrow to review the process. We will be taking care of giving them their break passes at the start of each week.

Please reach out with any questions or concerns.

He only gets 6 a week so he shouldn't be able to save them. In the future, we will give them a new color each week and let you know what the color is for the week (so they can't save them).

Hi Everyone,

Just a reminder that the twins NEED to use a break-pass in order to leave the classroom. This includes needing to get something from another classroom or from the office (this counts as a break). Today, James came to 202 on multiple occasions throughout the day and he did not have a break pass. Additionally, they are not permitted to take technology out of 202, as we now have two computers missing.

Thanks!

March 25th is the last SAT diagnostic for college spring. So the juniors would have to stay behind (unless we want to discuss them missing the SAT.)

Great, thanks! I got final confirmation from LATTC today and we're all set.

There are also a couple seniors that may not be in credit recovery, but have expressed interest to Carol (or other 12th grade teachers) about attending LATTC. I will work on putting together a final list of students and send it out in the next couple of weeks.

Great, thanks! I got final confirmation from LATTC today and we're all set.

There are also a couple seniors that may not be in credit recovery, but have expressed interest to Carol (or other 12th grade teachers) about attending LATTC. I will work on putting together a final list of students and send it out in the next couple of weeks.

Hi all,

We are a go for the field trip to LA trade tech on March 25th. This will be for the seniors in Leal's class and seniors in Ms. Tang's credit recovery class.

Jessica I think Sofia already talked to you about a bus for this trip but if not can you begin working on getting a bus for this day.

Thanks team!

March 25th is the last SAT diagnostic for college spring. So the juniors would have to stay behind (unless we want to discuss them missing the SAT.)

Date: Friday, January 25, 2019 2:30:27 PM

HI team,

I wanted to give you an update. Ms. Smith and I met with [redacted] during lunch and discussed the seriousness of this incident and informed [redacted] that he would receive and F (50%) on this quiz with no opportunity to retake it. We also informed him that he would need to stay for mandatory tutoring on Tuesday after school in order to learn the information he does not understand.

I followed up and called [redacted] father who was very upset by the incident and agreed to the tutoring and said he would follow up with [redacted] this weekend.

[redacted] signed the academic integrity contract after we went over this logging this as his first offense.

Thank you all for your support and aid in teaching this kiddo that we value honesty as well as learning from mistakes.

Subject: [redacted].- Academic Integrity- Math Quiz
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Hey Everybody--

Funny that we/I would have an opportunity to sort out some of these issues.

[redacted] just cheated on a PreCal quiz with his phone. His phone was on his lap and when I walked over to take it there was a picture on the screen. I do not know if it was a picture of the problems on the quiz or not.

I checked his log entries and he has no discipline entries at all. In my experience with him he has been a good citizen, respectful and has shown strong understanding of the subject.

In this case I would NOT want to give the student a zero—contrary to what I said a week ago in our Wed. PD meeting. It would be unproductively harsh in this case, I feel. He has no prior incidents recorded. He made a mistake, and if he realized it and never did it again it would be real evidence of developing an admirable moral code.

Gorsich came by my room and pulled [redacted] to follow up; I hope to have details of the consequences soon. As it is an academic issue I've included the counselor and advisor in the email.

Thanks,
Cybele

Attached is the PDF with the instructions for students “registering’ their account. Since I will be mass creating accounts for them today you can review these instructions with them to confirm their accounts next week.

Also, the more I explore this site the easier it's becoming to navigate and understand all the resources available. I found this PDF by just going to the "Knowledge" section on the right side of the Educator Dashboard. And you can just search for what you're looking for.

I strongly recommend we both explore this site as much as possible on our time to really get familiar with it as I can see it can be a great tool for us and the students. We can assign tasks for them on here and even see if they've completed them. I even created a fake student account that allows me to see it from the student's perspective so then it's easier to put together the assignments you want them to complete or even just explain to them what the expectation is and also use it as a demo for them in class prior to giving them independent working time.

Attached is the PDF with the instructions for students “registering’ their account. Since I will be mass creating accounts for them today you can review these instructions with them to confirm their accounts next week.

Also, the more I explore this site the easier it’s becoming to navigate and understand all the resources available. I found this PDF by just going to the “Knowledge” section on the right side of the Educator Dashboard. And you can just search for what you’re looking for.

Ok, so some were able to log in when they tried a second or third time to log in. Others were not successful even when checking their info against what's on the list you sent. Here are the names.

Tomorrow should yield a shorter list since it's only periods 5 & 7 and period 5 is a small group.
Thanks

Hi Jef,

I know I spoke to you on the phone about this. But please make sure the students double check the info they are including as they register their account. And also that they indeed are "registering" and not "creating an account" I'm attaching the data I used when setting up their accounts in case the student is entering incorrect info it can be corrected to this.

If that still doesn't work, please keep a list of the names of students who are still encountering issues and you can forward to Sly so he can help us fix it.

Thanks!

We will pay for the conference and the sub coverage only. Since it is locally there is no accommodation or transportation. We just need to know how many of the day each person is interested in attending so we can pay for the right amount of days.

Thank you so much for the opportunity, but I will have to decline as well. We are finalizing our honeymoon plans and may be traveling during that week. Also, as Amber already mentioned, the trip would be difficult to make back and forth on a daily basis with traffic.

Hope you all have a wonderful holiday break!

Hey John,
I see that [redacted] has a camera but I don't see another. Is it just her or did two go out?

No- they didn't include it because it's on legal sized paper. It's a one page reference sheet.

The last half (or more, hopefully) is dept work time, we don't need to come back whole group. We should split off so dept chairs can use the ppts.

So I would recommend announcements, etc. to come right before pd starts.

Is that ok?

They were huddled around watching them with demonstration on rolling papers…

As this was going on [redacted] said "If I fail this class semester one, I'll get to stay in here" (this was in response to asking him to take out the grade improvement work I have given him so that he doesn't end with F).

This is frustrating on multiple levels as students continue to feel increasingly more comfortable speaking about drugs/doing drug related things. Additionally, multiple students in this class have the understanding that they can continue to make up failed classes over and over again. They continue to communicate that it is good because they get to be with their friends.

So apparently he wrote 8:03…he said you know so he wasn't that late…and something about the office tripping…

It sounds like he was hoping it would get logged at 8:03 so it wouldn't look that late!

Always something!

Hi Sherrie,

We can get Kelly set up with accounts for i-Ready and Carnegie as soon as she has a GD email address. It doesn't look like she is in the system yet, but once she is, we can do that pretty quickly.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

In the meantime, you might want to see if you are able to share your logins with her or whether she can share with another teacher.

It looks like the Math Support classes are now rostered to Julio in Powerschool, but since he has an admin account, it looks like the classes are not currently rostered to a specific teacher in i-Ready and can only be accessed with an admin account. I think that once Kelly has an email address, we can try to get her enrolled as the teacher.

Good morning Tessa and Christina,

I'm hoping you all can help me figure out how to get access for our new long term sub to both the Carnegie materials online as well as our math support classes in iReady. I'm not sure how to access the classes on iReady since Ms. Choi left and I'm not super familiar with that system.

Our new Substitute's name is Kelly Tartan, cc'd here, and I know Wendy was working on getting her a greendot email address.

Any help you can give would be greatly appreciated!

Great! Happy to have you participate. Different schools have structured it differently so you can decide how you want to use the day and how many teachers will participate. Some schools have split the days across 2 different teachers. Some schools had small co-planning groups or subbed out other teachers to observe the demo lesson. Jami will work with you on how you'd like to structure it.

Subject: Carnegie In-Classroom Support Days

Hello Venice Support Team for Math,

This year, we've taken advantage of a new professional development support feature from Carnegie where one of their content, curriculum, and instruction experts comes to do some direct support with teachers at the school site. We had 10 days initially built into our contract for materials that I offered to high schools earlier in the semester.

Ralph Bunche, Leadership, ODLH, and ACPA have already received some support from Jami Koustik – our Carnegie instructional expert – and ACPA and Jackie Robinson have some additional upcoming days scheduled in semester 2. These support days have included classroom demos, co-planning with teachers, and observing and debriefing with teachers around their classroom instruction using Carnegie. We have found the quality of support in those initial services to be high.

We have some additional grant funds this year to support some of our priority schools in math and have decided that we'd like to purchase additional in-classroom support days to be able to extend this support to more of our high schools.

I'm reaching out to you to see if you'd be interested in scheduling 2 (or potentially up to 4 given availability) of these support days for some of your teachers in Quarter 3. If you have more questions about the supports or don't feel that type of support is right at this time, let me know. If this is something you're interested in, I'll reach out to Jami about some of her available dates in Q3 and we can work on getting those scheduled.

Thanks!

We had 10 days initially built into our contract for materials that I offered to high schools earlier in the semester.

Ralph Bunche, Leadership, ODLH, and ACPA have already received some support from Jami Koustik – our Carnegie instructional expert – and ACPA and Jackie Robinson have some additional upcoming days scheduled in semester 2. These support days have included classroom demos, co-planning with teachers, and observing and debriefing with teachers around their classroom instruction using Carnegie. We have found the quality of support in those initial services to be high.

We have some additional grant funds this year to support some of our priority schools in math and have decided that we'd like to purchase additional in-classroom support days to be able to extend this support to more of our high schools.

I'm reaching out to you to see if you'd be interested in scheduling 2 (or potentially up to 4 given availability) of these support days for some of your teachers in Quarter 3. If you have more questions about the supports or don't feel that type of support is right at this time, let me know. If this is something you're interested in, I'll reach out to Jami about some of her available dates in Q3 and we can work on getting those scheduled.

I haven't replied. Can we look at the calendar together tomorrow and then reply. Right now I'm sort of thinking one of the earlier March dates.

Great! Happy to have you participate. Different schools have structured it differently so you can decide how you want to use the day and how many teachers will participate. Some schools have split the days across 2 different teachers. Some schools had small co-planning groups or subbed out other teachers to observe the demo lesson. Jami will work with you on how you'd like to structure it.

Feb 19-20
Feb 25-28 March 1

Here are the pairs of dates that Jami currently has available during 2nd semester. Let me know what works for you and I'll coordinate with her.

Hello Venice Support Team for Math,

This year, we've taken advantage of a new professional development support feature from Carnegie where one of their content, curriculum, and instruction experts comes to do some direct support with teachers at the school site. We had 10 days initially built into our contract for materials that I offered to high schools earlier in the semester.

These support days have included classroom demos, co-planning with teachers, and observing and debriefing with teachers around their classroom instruction using Carnegie. We have some additional grant funds this year to support some of our priority schools in math and have decided that we'd like to purchase additional in-classroom support days to be able to extend this support to more of our high schools.

I'm reaching out to you to see if you'd be interested in scheduling 2 (or potentially up to 4 given availability) of these support days for some of your teachers in Quarter 3. If you have more questions about the supports or don't feel that type of support is right at this time, let me know. If this is something you're interested in, I'll reach out to Jami about some of her available dates in Q3 and we can work on getting those scheduled.

Great! Happy to have you participate. Different schools have structured it differently so you can decide how you want to use the day and how many teachers will participate. Some schools have split the days across 2 different teachers. Some schools had small co-planning groups or subbed out other teachers to observe the demo lesson. Jami will work with you on how you'd like to structure it.

Feb 25-28 March 1
March 4-8
March 11-15
March 18-19

Here are the pairs of dates that Jami currently has available during 2nd semester. Let me know what works for you and I'll coordinate with her.

Subject: Carnegie In-Classroom Support Days

Hello Venice Support Team for Math,

This year, we've taken advantage of a new professional development support feature from Carnegie where one of their content, curriculum, and instruction experts comes to do some direct support with teachers at the school site. We had 10 days initially built into our contract for materials that I offered to high schools earlier in the semester.

Ralph Bunche, Leadership, ODLH, and ACPA have already received some support from Jami Koustik – our Carnegie instructional expert – and ACPA and Jackie Robinson have some additional upcoming days scheduled in semester 2. These support days have included classroom demos, co-planning with teachers, and observing and debriefing with teachers around their classroom instruction using Carnegie. We have found the quality of support in those initial services to be high.

We have some additional grant funds this year to support some of our priority schools in math and have decided that we'd like to purchase additional in-classroom support days to be able to extend this support to more of our high schools.

I'm reaching out to you to see if you'd be interested in scheduling 2 (or potentially up to 4 given availability) of these support days for some of your teachers in Quarter 3. If you have more questions about the supports or don't feel that type of support is right at this time, let me know. If this is something you're interested in, I'll reach out to Jami about some of her available dates in Q3 and we can work on getting those scheduled.

Hello Venice Team,

Just wanted to check if you had a chance to decide on any of the dates below. Jami's schedule tends to fill up quickly, so we want to make sure we book soon to get time early in the semester.

Let me know if you have questions.

Thanks,

Great! Happy to have you participate. Different schools have structured it differently so you can decide how you want to use the day and how many teachers will participate. Some schools have split the days across 2 different teachers. Some schools had small co-planning groups or subbed out other teachers to observe the demo lesson. Jami will work with you on how you'd like to structure it.

Feb 4-6
Feb 19-20
Feb 25-28 March 1
March 4-8
March 11-15
March 18-19

Here are the pairs of dates that Jami currently has available during 2nd semester. Let me know what works for you and I'll coordinate with her.

How many teachers can we have Jami work with? Right now I'm thinking 3 of them would really benefit from this.

Hello Venice Support Team for Math,

This year, we've taken advantage of a new professional development support feature from Carnegie where one of their content, curriculum, and instruction experts comes to do some direct support with teachers at the school site. We had 10 days initially built into our contract for materials that I offered to high schools earlier in the semester.

Ralph Bunche, Leadership, ODLH, and ACPA have already received some support from Jami Koustik – our Carnegie instructional expert – and ACPA and Jackie Robinson have some additional upcoming days scheduled in semester 2. These support days have included classroom demos, co-planning with teachers, and observing and debriefing with teachers around their classroom instruction using Carnegie. We have found the quality of support in those initial services to be high.

We have some additional grant funds this year to support some of our priority schools in math and have decided that we'd like to purchase additional in-classroom support days to be able to extend this support to more of our high schools.

I'm reaching out to you to see if you'd be interested in scheduling 2 (or potentially up to 4 given availability) of these support days for some of your teachers in Quarter 3. If you have more questions about the supports or don't feel that type of support is right at this time, let me know. If this is something you're interested in, I'll reach out to Jami about some of her available dates in Q3 and we can work on getting those scheduled.

Thanks!

Hi Sherrie,

We've found that scheduling in 2-day pairs has been most helpful for the most robust experience. Also, Jami is traveling from Arizona so it's helpful if we can combo those together. If you're interested in more than 2 days, let me know and we should be able to make that happen too.

The dates in the list I sent are just the dates she had open in her calendar and was able to travel. Bunch just requested to reserve Feb 4-5, so those are off the table now.

Let me know if you have other questions.

Subject: Carnegie Support plan for Feb 28th and March 1st

Good morning Tessa and Christina,

For our Carnegie days on Feb 28th and March 1st would the support person be able to teach an Algebra 1 lesson 1st period Thursday and an Algebra 2 lesson 2nd period then we could have time to plan with our teachers in the afternoon. Then on Friday she could prep with Shazeen 5th observe during 6th and plan with Rombro 7th.

Can you check on that schedule and then I will share it with our teachers and arrange sub coverage?

Thank you!

Dotters,

As I shared earlier this week, today was an important day for public charter schools in Los Angeles. Over 300 Green Dot parents, staff and community partners joined thousands of other charter supporters in front of the LAUSD headquarters for a rally prior to the Board meeting. They called for unity, a continued focus on ensuring high-quality educational options for all, and respect for parents' right to choose where their children attend school. Unfortunately, the LAUSD Board voted 5-1 in favor of a resolution that asks the California State Legislature to impose a temporary moratorium on new charter schools within LAUSD. While Green Dot California does not have any plans of opening new schools within LAUSD, we know that a moratorium on new charter schools could limit the educational options afforded to some of the highest-need communities in the city.

Despite the fact that today's vote did not land where the thousands of parents and community members at the rally had hoped, I end today filled with hope and inspiration. Today's rally helped to amplify the voices of parents. Today's rally was a reminder of just how much parents and the city of Los Angeles care about education. Today's rally was a reminder that the parents of the 11,500 students we serve in Green Dot California schools entrust us with their children and expect us to deliver on our promise to prepare them for college, leadership and life. Today's rally was a beautiful expression of civic engagement and of social justice in action.

I ask all of us to start tomorrow with a renewed sense of purpose and understanding of just how much Green Dot parents value the life-changing educational options that all of you help to provide each and every day. May we move forward with even more urgency, even more passion, even more compassion and even more clarity about our joint mission. Together, we can and will continue to open doors of opportunity and help our students realize the inherent brilliance they hold inside.

I want to give special thanks to the schools who were able to send parents to the rally today: Ánimo Ellen Ochoa, Oscar de la Hoya Ánimo, Ánimo Watts, Ánimo Mae Jemison, Ánimo Pat Brown and Ánimo Florence-Firestone. Special thanks to the Locke marching band for making us all proud with their performance on stage today. And special thanks to the home office staff who helped coordinate buses and lunch for parents and who showed up to support parents at the rally. The Ánimo spirit was palpable today. I am proud to work alongside all of you, and I am confident that we will continue to work together to change the odds for students for many years to come.

Subject: checking in about materials for advisory

Hi, admin!

1. Can you update us on the status of advisory purchases (3-prong folders and crates with hanging folders)? We have the crates and hanging folders in my office. The 3 prong folders, I am not sure how many we need. Can you help me with that? What is the purpose of the folders?

2. Also, some teachers have shared that they think an advisory notebook would be a good support for the LMA curriculum. 9th grade already received these earlier in the year, and 12th grade shouldn't need them. Are you open to the idea of providing composition/spiral notebooks for 10th and 11th graders? Sure, I will work with Wendy on Thursday. Again only for 10th and 11th grade.

3. Finally, just so we're all on the same page, last week, at least 3 teachers actually did NOT receive their posters in advance of the advisory lesson. This resulted in some last-minute scrambling that added some additional stress and chaos for those teachers and well as advisory leads. I'm not sure which student was supposed to be delivering the materials, but in the future, it might be helpful to for us to either (1) work with a more reliable student, or (2) more closely monitor that student to make sure that he/she has completed the job. Can you confirm whether or not it was [redacted], the student that I'll normally be working with? If they were delivered during 5th period, it could have been her, but if they were delivered during 6th, then it would not have been. I wouldn't expect her to mess up something like that, but I just want to be sure so I know how much oversight I need to do for her. Not sure what happen because all posters were delivered at the begging of 6th. The only one we knew still needed the posters came by the office to ask for them at the beginning of lunch. Who were the teachers that did not received their poster?

Many thanks,
Sara

Schilp, Dove, and Kannofsky at a minimum. Schilp handled it himself but let me know. For Dove and Kannofsky, I called the office for them from their classrooms and talked to Jessica, who said she would have a student send it up at that time. Thankfully though, it sounds like it wasn't [redacted], which reaffirms my general impression that she'll be a good student for this job. Thank you!

Hi team,

I wanted to check in and see how things have been going in APEX since our meeting last week. ☺

Jef have you had a chance to decide on if you are going to be using google classroom or some other type of system for keeping the pacing guides for the students? Carol thank you for sending that form right away!

I'm waiting to hear back from the home office on the percentage question so I'll let you know as soon as I know.

Has [redacted] been showing up or do we still think he may be going to Ms. Leal first period?

Thanks team!

I'll put him on the list of phone calls but today probably won't be the day to call. No conference period & very busy after school life for Papa.
Thanks for the info!

I haven't seen him during 1st this week (he's been coming to school late). I think it was the same situation last week. During the first two weeks he was doing APEX in my room. I've been checking in with him about his attendance. He responds well to individual check-ins, so that may be the next best step. Also mom is really responsive, so I'd recommend calling her!

Just as an FYI to everyone, he's very up and down in regards to attendance and behavior. Right now he's in a slump (in all classes, not just APEX). I'll check in with him again today/tomorrow.

Checking in on [redacted]. He has not stopped by my room this week nor last week. You can see by his attendance that he is collecting lots of absences. Has he been showing up anywhere? Ms. Leal? Has he been with you? So far this semester, he has seven absences and one tardy. Suggestions for reigning him in?

Jef, feel free to create the CR11 classrooms on your end since you can't access the ones I created. I'll just delete mine. Since there aren't any students enrolled in them it isn't an issue.

As for the apex classroom, that won't impact the CR11 classrooms so feel free to create that ASAP so you can get the student on and on shared schedules/pacing plans.

Hi Julio!

I just wanted to check in to see how things are going in preparing for the oversight visit. Here is the checklist we went over when we met: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1LHElVkgE4DGvidqrc9GrIKP1g_MDeCmqX_VPCLNfl64/edit.

A couple of items from me:

- We have not received the agenda or questions from the district yet but I will remind them that we will be on Winter Break from 12/24-1/4
- Even though we have not received any questions, in the attachment I provided some full answers and bullet points for response on items on anticipated questions. I hope that this helps as you craft your personalized responses.

As a reminder, there are a couple of suggested deadlines in the document coming up in the next couple of weeks. Though all are in the document, please take care to complete the following items before break:

- 12/14 - Identify 3 high level talking points
- 12/20 - Upload PDs from this year and last year to the Google Drive – include materials on supporting student groups (EL, SWD) and discipline
- 12/20 – email me Materials on the key instructional programs you plan to highlight

Please let me know if you have any questions!

Hi Julio!

I just wanted to check in to see how things are going in preparing for the oversight visit. Here is the checklist we went over when we met: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1LHElVkgE4DGvidqrc9GrIKP1g_MDeCmqX_VPCLNfl64/edit.

A couple of items from me:

- We have not received the agenda or questions from the district yet but I will remind them that we will be on Winter Break from 12/24-1/4
- Even though we have not received any questions, in the attachment I provided some full answers and bullet points for response on items on anticipated questions. I hope that this helps as you craft your personalized responses.

As a reminder, there are a couple of suggested deadlines in the document coming up in the next couple of weeks. Though all are in the document, please take care to complete the following items before break:

- 12/14 - Identify 3 high level talking points
- 12/20 - Upload PDs from this year and last year to the Google Drive – include materials on supporting student groups (EL, SWD) and discipline
- 12/20 – email me Materials on the key instructional programs you plan to highlight

Please let me know if you have any questions!

Hey miss,

Would you be available to check in real quick tomorrow during 7th? We wanted to touch base about the academic integrity policy, we wanted to hear your concerns and make sure we are on the same page moving forward.

Let us know when would be a good time to check in.

Thank you!

Hi admin,

I hope you had a great break!

You are receiving this email because I don't have a designated coordinator for the CHKS at your school. Please see below for the NFTD blurb:

California Healthy Kids Survey - Action Required

The California Healthy Kids Survey will be administered to grades 7, 9 and 11 starting on January 22nd and ending on February 8th. All schools will need to designate a school site survey coordinator who will be in charge of administering the survey.

Please let us know who will be your survey coordinator though this form by November 30th. For any questions, please contact Adam Thomas.

I will be sending out information regarding planning and required documentation later this week, so please either fill out the form or respond to this email with your survey coordinator by EOD tomorrow, November 28th.

Thank you and let me know if you have any questions!

Best,

Adam

Hi CHKS Coordinators,

Thank you for your participation as CHKS coordinators!

The California Healthy Kids Survey (CHKS) will be administered to grades 7,9, and 11. Participation in the CHKS provides an opportunity to obtain data on issues that affect student's learning such as truancy, safety, harassment, substance use, school connectedness and learning support with the goal of improving school culture and climate.

The administration window for CHKS this year is 1/22 - 2/8 and, as with last year, the survey is entirely web-based.

Materials relevant to CHKS administration can be found here. This folder contains an administration instruction packet, passive consent forms in English and Spanish, and Assurance of Confidentiality forms.

Please complete the following action items:

1. Distribute and collect completed Assurance of Confidentiality forms from teachers by 12/21.

2. Send home passive consent forms with 7th, 9th and 11th graders by 1/14 to allow students to opt out of the administration if requested by parents.

    a. I have already pre-populated the administration window dates as well as the district contact information.

    b. Please be sure to fill in the class that the student will be taking the survey (near the middle of the form) as well as the contact information for parents who do not want their student to participate (right above the section that parents fill out).

Please contact Patty or me with any questions!

Best,

Adam

Hi CHKS Coordinators,

I wanted to check in on the action items below:

- Assurance of Confidentiality forms should have been distributed and collected. These do not need to be turned in to me, you can just keep them at your school site as records.
- Passive Consent forms should be sent home no later than 1/14.

I have obtained the survey links from WestEd and submitted them to our communications department in order to have them added to the school websites. I'll keep you updated as to when that is completed.

Please feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions!

Best,

Adam

From what I've seen there are 2 broken screens but no keys missing. I'll have students look over at the end of the day.

Sorry one other thing I just thought about is that Mr. Moreno may have some resources for you when it comes to the assignment the students can have tied to this unit/lesson. Since he's taught college readiness 11 he may have something he's used before. It might be worth a shot reaching out to him.

Jef, since the students will have about an hour on the day of the diagnostic AND they will have the lap tops available since they will be completing the survey online, the lesson/assignment they're working on could be the career interest and majors assignment? So next Tuesday/Wednesday you can help them create their accounts and briefly walk them through the functions of the website, have them complete the interest inventory and begin the career/major exploration and they continue with this independently for that time they have on the 28th. Though the assignment should be accessible online or they should get a copy of it that same day (28th) because they will not have access to you or your classroom so they should already know what the expectation is and possibly even provide a few slides for the sub/proctor to review with them as a reminder so they have clear instructions on what is to be completed during that time.

Just a suggestion since we want them to use their time wisely. ☺

Good Evening Team

As you know Monday the 28th we are giving the 3rd diagnostic test. During the test we will use the time to work on developing a plan to best prepared students for the SBAC.

I will be sending the testing groups as soon as we enrolled a new student coming in the next few days.

Here is what the students will be doing.

Any questions please make sure to let me know.

Hi there,

Yes, the notification letters should have gone out to all families notifying them of their status and that regardless of their status, all students eat for free. You can verify with Wendy for the mailer date.

Take care,

I CART: Missing: #'s 8, 9, 22, 24, 28, 30, 32. This is a huge problem. My large Precalculus class will not be able to finish iReady testing tomorrow because there are 32 students in the class.

If everyone could please have students check their computers to make sure they don't have one from our cart this would help.

Subject: Concern regarding a 10th grade advisory and follow up.....

Good Evening Admin,

So far, we have had great feedback regarding the curriculum. One of the greatest points is that teachers are extremely excited to reference the curriculum in their content classes. As we gathered data this afternoon from teachers and their experience with day 1, there was a common concern that came up regarding one 10th grade advisory class in particular.

Students from Mr. Moreno's class reported that they had no idea what "advisory lesson" teachers were talking about and mentioned that they did not participate in the curriculum for day 1.

Mr. Murcia,

Can you please check in with Mr. Moreno and see if he was or was not able to deliver the curriculum? Of course, I have no actual way of confirming whether or not he was able to deliver the lesson, and I was not able to check in with him since it was the end of the day.
(1) If he was not able to, what additional supports/resources would he need in order to launch?
(2) How can we ensure that all of our students have access to the curriculum and are able to experience the life lessons that we are working on. (Lessons build on each other and are in order- Module 0 has lessons #1-6, with the exception of #2.) We are all working on lesson #3 on Wed, and #4 on Friday next week.)

Ms. Gorsich,

Thank you for teaching the lesson in the Math Support Class. I think that is a great and powerful message to send to the students and staff that these lessons are so important and valuable.

Mr. Murcia,

Thank you for stopping into my class and other advisory classes to be a part of the lesson and observe the experience students had today.

Sara,
Thanks for walking around and supporting Gerry and Jose with the walk-though's and for sending out all those emails to prepare teachers before and after the delivery of lesson 1.

I think that the entire school is sensing a shift in a very positive direction for advisory and there is plenty of excitement, and optimism in the atmosphere!

I think that's it for now. Thanks y'all!!

Have a super amazing weekend, rest up, and SEE YA TUESDAYYYYYYYYY!!

Peace,

I noticed in the AMU contract, Article XXX, that the school / Green Dot supports teachers with ongoing professional development. I would like to have the school pay for a sub for two days in late March as a support. See the link above.

For those who had already confirmed, first thank you! There were some conflicts on Cristina and Annette's calendars so there have been some slight adjustments.

Special note to double check if there are TWO lunches and only one is listed. If only one is listed (or if there is an edit to the lunch time on your scheduled food for thought date) please include the correct time in column H.

Also, Principals I will be following up to schedule one hour listening sessions with you to meet with Cristina before or after the food for thought.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

I look forward to seeing you all soon!

Hi, Julio and team!

I'm sending this email to confirm what is prepared for the training tomorrow. If you can respond this evening that would be wonderful; if not, we can check in first thing tomorrow morning. I plan to be at school by 7:30.

Julio, when you stopped by Amber's room, what I understood was that all copies were completed EXCEPT the handouts for the modules that Gerry said we should have ready by 2 p.m. Also, during our conversation, I believe you and Sherrie mentioned that you would be in charge of making the small, color-print posters.

With all that in mind, I have made 605 copies of the two handouts needed by 2 p.m. They are currently in the teacher's lounge with a note saying what they are for and directing people to not move them. If you can share with me a list of the number of students in each advisory, I can ask volunteer student(s) to come in tomorrow and divide the copies into the appropriate portions for each advisor. In order to organize those materials efficiently, I'm wondering if we already have access to 2 box-files with hanging folders. Please let me know. It would be nice to be able to show teachers where they will pick up materials and how they will be organized.

Finally, I think Gerry asked admin to send out an email in advance of the training to prepare teachers, but I don't think I've seen it yet. Perhaps it is planned for the Principal's post, but I would advise that we send it out ASAP, as it directs teachers to sign up for the legacy mindset mastery website BEFORE end of day Sunday.

I am still working on making a standard procedure for to follow for preparing materials. I will keep you all updated.

Best,
Sara

Hi there team,

Thanks for making those copies Ms. Rubin! I can print out the list of numbers for advisories when I get to school tomorrow. ☺

For the email I believe Dr. Lara was going to send that out? Dr. Lara will you still be doing that or do you want one of us to tonight?

Right now I do not believe we have boxes for hanging file folders. But I can ask Wendy in the morning. Likely we will have to wait on those though until we can order and or do a staples run.

Thanks!

Thank you for reaching out. Initial response is that any medication given to students must be with a prescription or doctors note. We are not allowed to give any medicine, even Tylenol, to students. Given this particular context, we'll reach out to see if this is any different.

Also, somewhat related- we received a very large donation of emergency contraception (Plan B) pills at our clinic recently. Do you think Animo would be interested in having some? I'm not sure if this is something your school nurse would stock but let me know if you'd like some. Thanks!

Hi Caitlin,

I am so happy to hear from you. We were just discussing this in my advisory team meeting. Unfortunately, we did not schedule Physiology this year for 12th graders so I will have to see if any of the 12th grade teachers would be willing to host this curriculum. I will follow up with that grade level team and back to you. If it is possible I would love to have a 10th grade version of this curriculum? Would you be able to accommodate both our school's needs in your schedule: the 10th and 12th grade?

Thank you for reaching out,

Hi Adriana,

I hope this message finds you well. I got your contact info from Emma Petersen, who used to teach Biology at Animo. I previously came in and taught a module on sexual and reproductive health to her students. We covered: gender and sexuality, STIs/STDs, contraception, and consent/healthy relationships. If you are interested in doing a similar program, let me know! I would be happy to come out and teach again.

Thanks!

Thank you for looking into it! Students have come to me and other teachers with questions about this medication in the past and we directed them to pharmacies but they have been concerned about costs and sometimes their local pharmacies have run out. Of course we counsel them on other forms of preventative contraception, but since it is available through this program could be a helpful resource.

Subject: RE: ULCA Title X workshops

Hi Caitlin,

I am so happy to hear from you. We were just discussing this in my advisory team meeting. Unfortunately, we did not schedule Physiology this year for 12th graders so I will have to see if any of the 12th grade teachers would be willing to host this curriculum. I will follow up with that grade level team and back to you. If it is possible I would love to have a 10th grade version of this curriculum? Would you be able to accommodate both our school's needs in your schedule: the 10th and 12th grade?

Thank you for reaching out,

Adriana

Hi Adriana,

I hope this message finds you well. I got your contact info from Emma Petersen, who used to teach Biology at Animo. I previously came in and taught a module on sexual and reproductive health to her students. We covered: gender and sexuality, STIs/STDs, contraception, and consent/healthy relationships. If you are interested in doing a similar program, let me know! I would be happy to come out and teach again.

Thanks!

I completely understand your reasoning and agree with you. We aren't, however, allowed to give students any type of medicine. I did reach out to Damon about it and he agreed. I'm still waiting on some more info on it. But, in the meantime, please do not give students any oral contraception.

Thank you for looking into it! Students have come to me and other teachers with questions about this medication in the past and we directed them to pharmacies but they have been concerned about costs and sometimes their local pharmacies have run out. Of course we counsel them on other forms of preventative contraception, but since it is available through this program could be a helpful resource.

Ms. Jaureguy,
Thank you for reaching out. Initial response is that any medication given to students must be with a prescription or doctors note. We are not allowed to give any medicine, even Tylenol, to students. Given this particular context, we'll reach out to see if this is any different.

I am scheduling Sex Ed for 10th and 12th grade and my contact just offered us Plan B pills to be available for our students. Does this require a school nurse to distribute?

Thank you,

Hi Cybele,

There are two things here. Work outside your normal workday during the year can be included in a stipend position during your normal work year (Aug 1st to the last day of school). This can't be added on at will though; when these positions are opened up, it's important that the requirements and duties of the position are clearly laid out, as well as the commensurate stipend for the work.

This doesn't include summer work though. No one is required to work during the summer. Any work during the summer requires extra compensation, unless teachers volunteer to attend.

The appropriate contract language for this would be the work year. Here it is below:

6.1 Work Year
Subject to section 26.1 of Article 26, the Unit Members will work up to one hundred ninety-three (193) days to include one hundred eighty-three (183) days of instruction, and ten (10) pupil free days. New teachers may have five (5) additional pupil free days.

Hello Angel-

It's Cybele from Animo Venice.

It came up again at our stipend committee meeting about whether Admin has the right to insist that persons holding stipended positions such as Dept. Head (ILT) attend meetings of any kind (including the GD Summit meetings) unpaid. Our admin is still under the impression that they have the right to insist that our stipend extends to any year-round work and that our attendance is "the expectation".

If I understood you correctly at the last AMU meeting, they are NOT allowed to ask us to work any unpaid hours.

She has asked that I reach out to provide the contract language that they are not allowed to ask us for any unpaid hours over the summer. Would you be able to help me find this language or proof?

Thanks,

Hi!

I have inquired about this before — budgeting for extra copies to be checked out by students from absence and also on medical leave. is in need of 4 -5 films to make up.

If you can please recommend best solution for this.

Thanks for the update! We didn't because we were told not to include GD PD days in our budget (we made the budget in Marchish so the co-teaching PDs were still happening). However, we did budget for a Finance Park field trip ($360.00) that I don't think will be happening this semester.

This would need to be a site based decision. Julio, Josh, and Sharri this would be something you would need to discuss and determine.

Also, Sofia, when your department created their dept budget last year did the team allocate subs for co-teaching pd in the dept budget?

Thank you!

Hi Everyone,

In the past co-teachers have attended GD Co-teaching PD once a semester where we get time to work with our co-teachers. However, we no longer have these PDs, so we are not receiving this co-planning time. Amber and I could really use a day to co-plan for the upcoming semester (it's too hard to do this during the school day due to our other responsibilities). Right now, we are working day to day, but it would be a lot more effective if we could plan ahead, especially for the research paper.

Would it be possible to sub us out for a day so that we can get this planning done? We can send an agenda ahead of time as well as notes from our meeting.

Let me know.

Thanks,

Thanks for the update! We didn't because we were told not to include GD PD days in our budget (we made the budget in Marchish so the co-teaching PDs were still happening). However, we did budget for a Finance Park field trip ($360.00) that I don't think will be happening this semester.

Hi team,

This would need to be a site based decision. Julio, Josh, and Sharri this would be something you would need to discuss and determine.

Also, Sofia, when your department created their dept budget last year did the team allocate subs for co-teaching pd in the dept budget?

Thank you!
Best,
Glynis

Hi Everyone,

In the past co-teachers have attended GD Co-teaching PD once a semester where we get time to work with our co-teachers. However, we no longer have these PDs, so we are not receiving this co-planning time. Amber and I could really use a day to co-plan for the upcoming semester (it's too hard to do this during the school day due to our other responsibilities). Right now, we are working day to day, but it would be a lot more effective if we could plan ahead, especially for the research paper.

Would it be possible to sub us out for a day so that we can get this planning done? We can send an agenda ahead of time as well as notes from our meeting.

Let me know.

Got it! Okay good to know. If the field trip isn't happening then from budget perspective this could be a possibility, but we would just need the site to approve it. Admin team, I leave the decision to you. ☺

Let me know if I can be of any other help!

If possible could our co-planning day be 1/15? I have pull out on 1/16 so that day would be ideal for planning purposes.

Hey team,

We had originally said that COST PD would be on March 6th but we need to change that to March 15th (which is a Friday but we will call whole staff together.)

Also for the counseling team how would it sound if you always had the 10 minutes before AMU time? Would bite size chunks work for you? We are really packed for PD time! ☹

Thanks team let us know,

Hello Team:

Are there plans to have COST present at PD next semester? If so, do we know how many sessions and how long will we have to present?

If there aren't any plan yet, can we request to be included in the calendar?

Thank you.

Hi Admin!

We would like to request two PD sessions, 1-PD for COST/Mental Health and 1-PD for Counseling/College related info. It goes without saying that any amount of time would be much appreciated!

Gracias,

Hi COST team,

We're trying to find time for you to present and it looks like we need to move some stuff and Next week Wednesday the 23rd is available. Would that work for you all to present? Maybe on the mental health side of things? Sorry for the short notice.

Let us know ☺

Hey Jef –

Hope you had a good first week back! I wanted to run by you the possibility of moving our junior class into a Google Classroom; in doing so I think we may find benefits on both ends, for the students and teacher. I acknowledge there may be limited access to computers, however maybe this Monday, we can have lunch together to brainstorm ways in which we could share computer carts and/or room 201 to make the transition happen. Let's check in early on Monday to make some time. Let me know what you think.

Enjoy your weekend,

Are teachers expected to be on campus? If so, can we ask them to do 1:45-3:00?

Hi Josh,
Most likely the laptop will have to be replaced. I can pick up the laptop either Monday(if I don't go to court) or Tuesday. Let me know if a loaner is needed.

Dear Mr. Murcia,

is writing a speech comparing the achievement of LAUSD versus Greendot Public Schools. She is arguing that LAUSD needs to increase its standards to be more like Greendot's in order to support low-income students. She is doing this for the Animo Voices Writing Competition that is due in early January. Do you know how she can get data from Greendot on some of the following items?

- Scores on state tests
- Graduation rates
- Drop-out rates
- Rates of applications to 2- and 4-year schools
- Rates of completion at 2- and 4-year schools

Many thanks,
Ms. Rubin &

Good Morning Ms. Choi

I just forward your letter to HR and as I was doing so I realized that the final day you gave us does not work. Due to the language in the employee handbook we need a letter stating that your last day is this Friday. If you can please make that correction and then resend it then I we will be able to process your paper work.

Gracias

Hello there Venice team!
I hope this email finds you well as only one school day separates you from a well-deserved Christmas break.

I am writing to get your thoughts on Ms. Choi as we suddenly have a part-time position available at Ánimo City of Champions. Lisa informed me that Ms. Choi resigned because she was only interested in coming back if you could accommodate a reduced schedule. That said, CHA is looking for a math teacher to teach Tuesdays and Thursdays (full days) and half the day Friday afternoons. Do you think this is something Ms. Choi would consider/be interested in? I know she's a great teacher and you all are bummed to lose her, but perhaps there's a chance we can retain her in the org.

Thanks in advance for your response.

Team,
I'm looking at our planned meeting for next week (Tuesday). If you see below, we have 2 IEPs (one for me and the other for Julio as admin). Mine is ½ way through Team coaching and Julio's is the last 30 minutes. Mine also leads 30 minutes into my planned School Culture Planning with Damon. I'm thinking that we should give him a heads up. I was going to suggest Sherrie take over in the IEP for me. But, you can see that she has a meeting with Rubin immediately following our meeting.

Take a look

Dear GDPSC School Leaders,

The ALT is excited to host 95/5 for Principals on December 6th and Assistant Principals and AIRs on December 13th. As tradition, we are asking school leaders to donate a $15, unwrapped toy for a child of 5 to 14 years of age. Please bring this gift with you to 95/5. We ask that please join us early for breakfast with your peers and the Area Superintendents.

Reminder to bring your Culturally Responsive Teaching and the Brain as well as a fully charged laptops (we will be using them throughout the day). Per feedback and in attempt to make 95/5s more impactful for you and your colleagues, we have modified the agenda (see below) to include blocks of planning time (total of 75 mins) so that you can apply new learning and start making critical moves. During this time you will have an opportunity to collaborate with colleagues and/or your area superintendent. To ground all of our units for the day in our equity work, we have moved the Learning for Equity unit to the beginning of the day.

Right now we have no update from our new hire due to the government shut down. So we are looking at what I am assuming will be at least another month.

Would you like to meet tomorrow after school and brainstorm some ideas for classroom management and discipline?

Subject: DEI: Celebrations

Good morning,

I wanted to share a deck that outlines a collaborative effort from the DEI Committee, Curriculum Team and Strategic Planning that outlines some baseline expectations for DEI: Celebrations at our schools.
This deck can hopefully be used as a resource to frame conversations at your school site as it includes the following:

- Our belief that this is a priority and celebrating our stakeholder's identities is a core part of our commitment to equity
- Our DEI Commitment statement
- Our starting points and expecting that each school celebrates:
    - Hispanic Heritage September 15 to October 15 Month – (we are little late in getting this to you and believe activities can run through the end of October if needed)
    - Black History Month - February
    - LGBTQ+ Pride – June
- A structure that helps you think through celebrations through the following objectives:
    - Increase Awareness
    - Build Knowledge and skill
    - Influence the system
- Considerations for Designing your Activities:
    - Scope: School-wide events or via individual classrooms?
    - Participation: Embed in mandatory events (within the school day) or optional (after school)?
    - Approach: Mix of awareness, skill building, and influencing
    - Engagement in Design: Who should weigh in on your approach
    - Bandwidth: What can you reasonably commit to?

We know that many of you have a history of rich celebrations/ awareness on your campus and we want to ensure that our students, parents, and staff members see this as a priority across all of our campuses.
Please take some time to review the deck and follow-up with your Area Superintendent or myself with any additional questions.

Thanks
Annette

Happy Monday!

Good news! We have 31 students selected as semifinalist for the Dell Scholars scholarship program. The next steps are to make sure students finish their remaining requirements (e.g. complete additional essays, submit their SAR/Transcript, get recommenders to submit their input) by the 2/1/19 deadline. Please ensure that these students receive personal assistance to walk them through this process. Shout out to all of the counselors and teachers who supported students to complete the application. A special shout out to Animo Leadership for getting 12 semifinalist! If you have any questions, please connect with your Counselor Support Specialist Erika or Sally.

Happy Tuesday!

This is a friendly reminder to ensure our Dell Semi Finalist complete the next steps below by Feb 1st. As of Monday 1/28, the following Green Dot students have completed all the items:

[redacted]

That said, some other students may have submitted everything but are not tagged as complete because there's currently a backlog of transcripts and SARs that Dell committees are still reviewing. So if you reach out to your students, please confirm that have already submitted everything.

Each semi-finalist must:

1. Submit their additional short answer responses to the 4 remaining application questions
2. Submit their Student Aid Report
3. Submit their most current transcript - Please note transcripts do not have to be official but must include this year's first semester grades. If the current transcript is not showing first semester grades, students should still upload their current transcript and also include one of the following:
   - A screenshot of first semester grades
   - A grade report showing first semester grades
   - A report card showing first semester grades
4. Identify a recommender and ensure that she/he submitted the recommendation of the applicant

Please try to notify all your semi-finalists to complete those 4 steps by the 2/1/18 deadline so that Dell can finish scoring their applications (and thus ensure they qualify to be among the selected 500 Dell Scholars for 2019!). Let me know if you have any follow-up questions.

Keep up the good work everyone. ☺

Best!

Hello all,

[redacted] cut her finger at the beginning of class, but she has picked at it and taken off her bandaids multiple times despite my telling her not to. There is now blood on one of the desks. I know I'm supposed to uphold the bodily fluids procedure, so could Don Alvaro perhaps come clean the spots?

Thanks in advance,

Good Evening,

I called home to speak with a the mother of [redacted] mom this afternoon because of her lack of work, use of electronics in class, sleeping in class, and extremely low semester 1 grades. The mom says she has other kids to drop off and the only time she is ever available is at 8am. I offered to meet during my conference, after school, or before school, but she insisted on only 8am. I am teaching per 1 or 5 at that time and am unavailable. Is it possible that one of you could please meet with her? I am more than happy to return the call and schedule the conference.

Thanks,
Sarah

Hello Josh,

It was wonderful speaking to you earlier. I went ahead and shared your requests with my higher ups and they were able to accept the transfer of positions, but unfortunately we would not be able to pay Mr. Taylor at the rate he has been receiving. If he is no longer going to be a sub with lesson planning and grading he would be considered a SpEd Aide and payed at that rate. Unfortunately there is no way around it due to the fact that payroll cannot edit the pay for this position. I will go ahead and wait on completing the booking of Mr. Taylor for this aide position until I hear back from you.

Thank you and feel free to reach out if you have any other questions or concerns.

Glynis,
Good morning and happy new year. I wanted to touch base with you about Lily's spot. We were able to secure a 20 day sub for AS/push-in, Derrick Taylor. He started today. I know we've been discussing Lily's caseload management. Can we set a time today to discuss what the plan Is moving forward? It looks like, according to Maxim, our Long Term replacement still won't be available until early February.

Hi team,

Since Lilly has resigned I will be facilitating [redacted] reconvene IEP to discuss parent concerns. Would someone be able to help me secure a GE teacher for this meeting?

Parent Concerns:

- Language on some of the accommodations.
- Reduced math minutes. Page 2 Section D states he met Math goal 1 but did not meet math goal 2 objective 2 as the goal needs to be adjusted. The reduction in minutes in this area is of great concern to me since he failed math.
- BSP from IEP dated 12/2017, there was confusion in the meeting regarding this point, however there was an amendment IEP held 02/2018 to discontinue OT and the BSP was included. Please refer to the aforementioned IEP. On page 2 Section D of the 12/2018 IEP it states [redacted] met objective 1 but did not meet objective 2 of his Behavior goal and there is no PLP.

Hi team,

Since Lilly has resigned I will be facilitating [redacted]s reconvene IEP to discuss parent concerns. Would someone be able to help me secure a GE teacher for this meeting?

Parent Concerns:

- Language on some of the accommodations.
- Reduced math minutes. Page 2 Section D states he met Math goal 1 but did not meet math goal 2 objective 2 as the goal needs to be adjusted. The reduction in minutes in this area is of great concern to me since he failed math.

- BSP from IEP dated 12/2017, there was confusion in the meeting regarding this point, however there was an amendment IEP held 02/2018 to discontinue OT and the BSP was included. Please refer to the aforementioned IEP. On page 2 Section D of the 12/2018 IEP it states [redacted] met objective 1 but did not meet objective 2 of his Behavior goal and there is no PLP.

Hi!

So in today's IEP for [redacted] mom requested we switch his math teacher because he has consistently not done well with the teacher he has now (also had D's last year) I've worked out a schedule for him that will allow for this for next semester. But I wanted to consult with you first.

Please know Lily tried her best to explain to mom how much more structure Ms. Shariff has in her class… but mom's response was not ideal. I explained to mom I'd work on a new schedule and consult with you then send her the new schedule to see if they want to move forward with the change.

Let me know if you have some time tomorrow to check in about this. ☺

Hi all,

Unfortunately, we have a DRB and SAC, both scheduled on Thursday and one of my worries has become a reality. I'm spreading myself pretty thin, and because of child care issues, I doubt I can make it to both meetings. I can definitely attend one, but it seems I have to strategically plan out how to make it happen....which I don't mind at all.

I know we are in need of at least 3 teachers for each one, so I'm flexible as to which one I can attend.

My husband is my daughter's lacrosse coach and they have to be at practice at 5:30, so I have to get the baby and keep her with me so my so can watch her if I am to attend the SAC meeting. This means I have to hurry home to pick her and my son up. But if I attend the DRB, I can stay after school and if I leave by 4:30, I will be home by 5 and just in time for them to make it. Unfortunately, I will no be able to make it back since SAC starts at 5.

I can make either option work, but unfortunately I cannot make both.

1) do we have confirmation for attendance from others bot both?
2) which do you prefer I attend?

Please advise.

Thank you.

Dr. Lara,
Thanks for thinking ahead of things. As much as we greatly appreciate everything you are doing for the students and the school, we definitely don't want you to stretch yourself too thin. We may have to postpone the SAC meeting that is scheduled for tomorrow and will no later today. If it's ok, we can let you know by the end of the day. So, far Jordan and Franz have accepted for the DRB. So, if you are able to attend, that would be great.

Hi Everyone,

As you are aware, the 3rd Diagnostic Test is coming up on Monday, January 28. Please see a few important tips below:

1. Cover any objects in the classroom that might help students with answers
2. Check to be sure you have all of the DT materials (list of materials here). If not, contact me asap.
3. In order for students to finish on time it is recommended that you:
    - Start on time
    - Adhere to exact timing in proctoring instructions for breaks
    - Ask students to arrive 15 minutes before the start of the test
    - Some teachers even have student pre-fill students name and ID on scantron
4. Set expectations for students (see Reminder Email to Students)
5. Plan for accommodations for students who need more time (see proctoring instructions for students who need more time)

Finally, please take attendance and keep track of any new or missing students so that we can schedule a make-up exam for them. I will pick up the tests when it's complete.

Good luck!

Ashley

Subject: [redacted] Drug Informational Hours?

Hey team,

I just got off the phone with [redacted] social worker who inquired about the hours [redacted] is supposed to complete on drug education. She wanted to know if they were something parents should be seeking out or if it is offered by the school? Additionally, she asked about the required office hours and asked if he was completing them?

Thanks,

I think we are at a point where we need to have parent shadow him? What does everyone else thinks? My only concern is that we admin and you Kristy would be communicating with mom his behavior for the first time. We need to get the rest of the 9th grade team to help us out. He is late to many classes, using the cell phone in different classes, not doing work in many classes, and being difficult in many different classes. We need to get the entire 9th grade team to help us communicate with family so it does not look like or feel like we are the only ones picking on him.

Subject: [redacted] Log Entry

Hello,

I've entered the following log entry for Edgar:

12/17/2018	Koenes, Kristy	Disruption	[redacted] walked into class 2 minutes tardy. During the silent Do Now, he sat down and loudly said "Who the fuck is calling me?" and answered his phone. I asked him to hang up the phone and put it away, but he refused. I then asked him to leave the class, as he was disrupting the silent activity. He left and was escorted to Mr. Stern, who confiscated his phone. He was sent back to class, but never returned.

[redacted] continues to be tardy every single 2nd period. Do you have any suggestions on what I should be doing about this? I've tried several different things to no avail.

Yes, Glynis will be here in the morning for a 7am IEP. Can we check in right after that? I think Glynis could give us some good feedback on that as well.

ECF agreed to send a 2nd therapist our way for ½ day! Her name is Monica and will be able to come on Wednesdays, most likely from 8am-11am.

This means we will need to work with Maryn for space, or one of us can agree to let them use our office on Wednesday mornings. We can discuss schedule/space at our next COST meeting.

Dr. Lara Checked in with me at lunch and the issue is that he was found for speech in PE which was not his correct class. It's his old period before the switch. So he was ditching today and then even though he did get sent back to Per 4 he did not go back to physics

Hi all,

[redacted] was not in 4th period this morning. I was informed that he was here.

Can you please confirm if he was here? If so, he did not have permission to be out of class. We recently had his 2nd DRB, and he knows that there are specific requirements that need to be upheld- such as going to class. If he was ditching in another class, can we please request a parent shadow?

Thank You,

Hey All,

Tomorrow's EL PD will start whole group as a basic overview/introduction/reminders, but then (as you have discussed with your CS / first ILT pull out day) we will break into departments so you can lead your department through content specific examples.
I am linking the area in connect where you can access your content area's examples/specific PDs.

Admin- who do you want electives and sped to meet with since they don't have the same materials? I am not sure what was done last time because I was out sick.

Resources for tomorrow:
http://connect.greendot.org/english-learners-leaders/

-go to the section that says Professional Development
-select 1. EL PD Unit
-select 1. 2018-2019
-select 4. PD Unit 4
-select your content area's breakout folder. There you will find a PPT & some content areas have handouts as well. If you don't want to use a PPT, then you will need to print out the ppt slides. You should also customize it for your content area.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if you have trouble accessing your content area.

Dear principals,

I'm looking forward to seeing you tomorrow! During our ELA breakout session, we will have an opportunity to take a step back and reflect on the many resources and content we presented in the last three sessions, identify and address specific ELA department issues on your campus, and develop a plan to support your department.

To support you with this, I'm reaching out to request that you please bring the ELA Pathfinder Binder that I passed out at the first 95-5 in September (see pic below for the cover of the packet). We'll reference this at various points during the session tomorrow.

Subject: ELA New Curriculum Pioneer Nomination Request

Dear principals and assistant principals,

As you know, myPerspectives is the new curriculum that we will launch with our ELA teachers in the fall of next year. We are really excited to dig deeper into the wide range of resources this curriculum has to offer. As we develop curriculum pacing guides and work with the publisher to map out supports through this transition, we would like to partner with a few strong teachers for an extended semester two pilot.

These Curriculum Pioneers would

- teach at least one full unit in semester two and may continue the pilot through the end of the semester.
- Administer the unit formative and summative assessment as well as an online benchmark assessment
- Engage students in some of the online platform assignments, including at least one essay to assess the value of the online EssayScorer tool.

- be willing to be observed and supported by a literacy coach
- Attend a full day of professional development presented by the publisher to learn how to implement the resources effectively

The purpose of this email is to invite you to nominate one or more teachers on your campus that would be strong for this role. An ideal candidate would be a teacher with strong instructional practices that will be likely to help support the transition for the ELA teachers in your dept and collaborate with our team to teach the lessons with fidelity and try the online tools with students. Teachers currently in leadership roles, or interested in building their leadership capacity and or instructional knowledge, are also ideal.

The Curriculum Pioneer may be one of 55 teachers who piloted materials last semester, but they do not have to be. Benefits of having a Curriculum Pioneer on your campus include having additional free instructional materials on your campus, support for one of your teachers to get a head start on exploring the materials prior to full implementation, and having a school site "expert" to help guide the rest of your English team through adoption.

Please respond to this email by next Monday, January 28th if you would like to nominate an English teacher on your campus for this role. Once we receive all nominations, we will refine the list to at least one strong teacher per grade level.

Thank you for your time and support in this work!

Sincerely,

Leona Matthews

Hi there, Amber, Julio, Sherrie, and Josh!

Hope you're having a great Thursday so far. On my (long, insane) drive home yesterday, I reflected a lot on the PD that your team ran, and I was so impressed and excited by how it went. I hope y'all feel the same way, too!

Some highlights:

- Sharing examples from classrooms, both objectives and board displays
- Helping teachers think through the logistics of adjusting their boards
- When asked if teachers had to do it or not, letting them know that ELD support like this is a mandate similar to that of an IEP. Teachers accepted this immediately and understood the importance of meeting this expectation
- Clarity about when and what to do (at least one bullet point starting January 7th)
- Letting departments work together for a really smart amount of time. They got to grapple with the content without having enough time to have off-task conversations, and I think they then had a taste to engage in these discussions even further.

I am really grateful that I was able to be a part of your team yesterday and able to answer questions as they arose. As always, please feel free to include me in any support that teachers need. Even if they are not in the ELA department, I would be more than happy to sit with a teacher or a team to help them think through building out language criteria for success or anything else.

Have an awesome rest of the week, and I will see you all soon!

All my best,
Steph

Subject: ELPAC Testing To Do's

Hi Josh,

Hope you're doing well! When I met with Julio yesterday I told him I would follow up with you via email regarding any pertinent info for ELPAC testing. Please see below and let me know if you have any questions.

ELPAC Summative Assessment (SA): The testing window for the ELPAC Summative is February 25th – March 29th

1. *NEWTeacher Training and Admin Facilitation Materials There will not be a pull-out day for teacher or admin training this school year. Please utilize the below materials to train your staff to give the ELPAC Assessment.

- Admin for EL ELPAC Coordinator Materials: Includes an admin presentation and required admin tasks for ELPAC coordination
- Training Materials for teachers new to giving the ELPAC: Please plan on facilitating this training at your school site for all teachers who are new to giving the ELPAC (2 hour training). Teachers must participate in this training before administering the ELPAC.
- Calibration Quiz for teachers who were previously trained: All teachers who were trained last year must complete this calibration quiz and turn it into admin before administration of the ELPAC (1 hour).

2. TOMs/Moodle Access for testing facilitators
   - Please enter the names of any person who will conduct ELPAC SA testing into this tracker by 2/1. Thank you for completing this already!
   - The tracker will give test facilitators access to Moodle (to norm on speaking test scoring) and to TOMs (to give the Listening and a portion of the Speaking test)

3. Testing Materials
   - ELPAC SA materials should arrive by 2/8

4. Testing Rosters
   - Will be available on 1/25. If you need to know who you will be testing before that, please run a quick export for all ELs on PowerSchool

Thank you,
Laura

Hi Josh and Team,

Yes, the CBA allows for the Observation Cycle to be continued in the spring if teacher absence prevented the cycle from being completed in the fall. Sounds like everybody is in agreement. There is one complete Unscheduled Observation, which Josh and I will work on transferring to a new template in the spring and then a 2nd Unscheduled and a Scheduled Observation need to happen. Please let me know if there are any questions.

Mr. Ely, I wish you as speedy recovery!

Best,
Julia

Article XXI.III.A.6
If a teacher is absent during the fall semester in a manner that prohibits the completion of his/her "On Semester" evaluation, the evaluating administrator shall conduct and/or complete his/her evaluation during the following spring semester. If a teacher is absent during the spring semester in a manner that prohibits the completion of his/her "On Semester" evaluation, the teacher shall not receive a Summative Score for that school year.

Julia,
I'd like to move John Ely's formal to next semester. I was delayed in getting his formal and then he was in a motorcycle accident that further delayed it. Damon advised that, with Mr. Ely's permission, we can move the formal to January. I've spoken with him and he has agreed to moving the formal.

While, I agree and it does sound good we can't change the schedule.

Students will be taking the first 4 parts of the test in the morning, going to regular lunch and then coming back. That already breaks the cycle so to go back and take an essay after a 35min break is not realistic.

So, for D3 we will not do the essay. For D4 depending on the schedule we can look at doing the essay.

Mates for your information, I have heard some of our kids saying that they will not be taking the essay at the real SAT since it is now optional. Food for thought

Hey Jef,

Thanks for bringing this to our attention.

I agree that having true testing conditions is the best way to go. This allows students to acclimate to the time management and endurance required to ace the official test.

Let me know what you all decide.

Best,

Ashley

all parts as they will on March 9. They will be in the test environment already and we wouldn't have to sit down & figure out when we can squeeze it into an already tight schedule in CR11.

Hi Venice admin,

I hope you had a great break!

I wanted to check in about the administration methods for the upcoming Family (1/22 – 5/3) and Student (2/11 – 3/8) Surveys.

Family Surveys

Both the online and paper options are available for the Family Survey again this year. Please let me know by EOD Friday, January 11th if your school will be doing the Family Survey online or via paper.

Student Surveys

As a friendly reminder, this year we are moving to a complete online administration for all schools for the Student Survey. Administering this survey online allows us to give live response rate data and also reduces printing/shipping/data processing costs and time.

Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions or concerns.

Best,

Adam

Hi, Katharine,

I'm currently planning to clear my credential by becoming certified by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards. Does GreenDot provide any fee support for this process? If I should direct my email to someone else, please let me know.

They would like to invite you to come out and join us for lunch if you are available (no pressure- I know it's a Saturday)

But.....if any of you are able to make it, it would be a great way to make connections and see the opportunities we can offer our students.

Please see the email below and email Xioamara if you are able to make it.

I have met with both students. [redacted] was a bit more reflective than [redacted] as in he was able to articulate what he did and why it was wrong. [redacted] eventually met with me after several follow ups but did not get the sense that the conversations had meaning.

Ms. Tang,
I was just reviewing our academic integrity contract, attached. It does include a follow-up with the admin. I can call the students in. I saw that you met with one. Have you met with both. I want to make sure that we are meeting with students after the teacher has already had the initial conversation.

Hi Mr. Stern,

The students [redacted].

The biggest issues are that they are constantly late to advisory and never have a pass or suitable excuse and they talk back when asked to do the work in class, or are VERY slow to get the materials they need to actually do the assignment. Overall there is a constant power struggle and underlying attitude whenever I give them instructions.

These were addressed during parent-teacher conferences with each student and their parent as well.

My preference would be to have an admin supported mediation with each student rather than just an admin and student one-on-one.

Ms. Makkar,
I just wanted to follow-up with you about the students who were let into your room. Please let me know who those students are that you want admin to talk with and provide some details about what's going on with them so that we can ensure we are having informed conversations with them.

If you want to have some mediations with them individually, let us know so we can work on that with you.

Hey Carol and Greego-

I filled out the 504 observation from and left it with Ms. Gorsich.

It was backdated to 12/7- I'm not sure when it was delivered to my box; it wasn't there early last week. Because my box is above eye-level, it helps if someone lets me know if sensitive and timely information is in placed there, either with an email or in person. Certainly I wouldn't want to hold up any timelines, but it also isn't a secure environment because of all of the TAs and students that use the teachers' lounge for meetings. It's best if those things are probably handed off in person.

Thanks,
Cybele

Good after noon Ma'am,

I finished bucketing and rating all of the evidence for your summative and the scores are shared. You had already done your rakings so you can leave them or go back and take a look at the bucketed evidence and rerate it's up to you. ☺

Also we need to figure out a good time to meet. I'm meeting with Mr. Rombro during 7th on Wednesday but maybe I can move him a little earlier so we can use the end of the period to debrief.

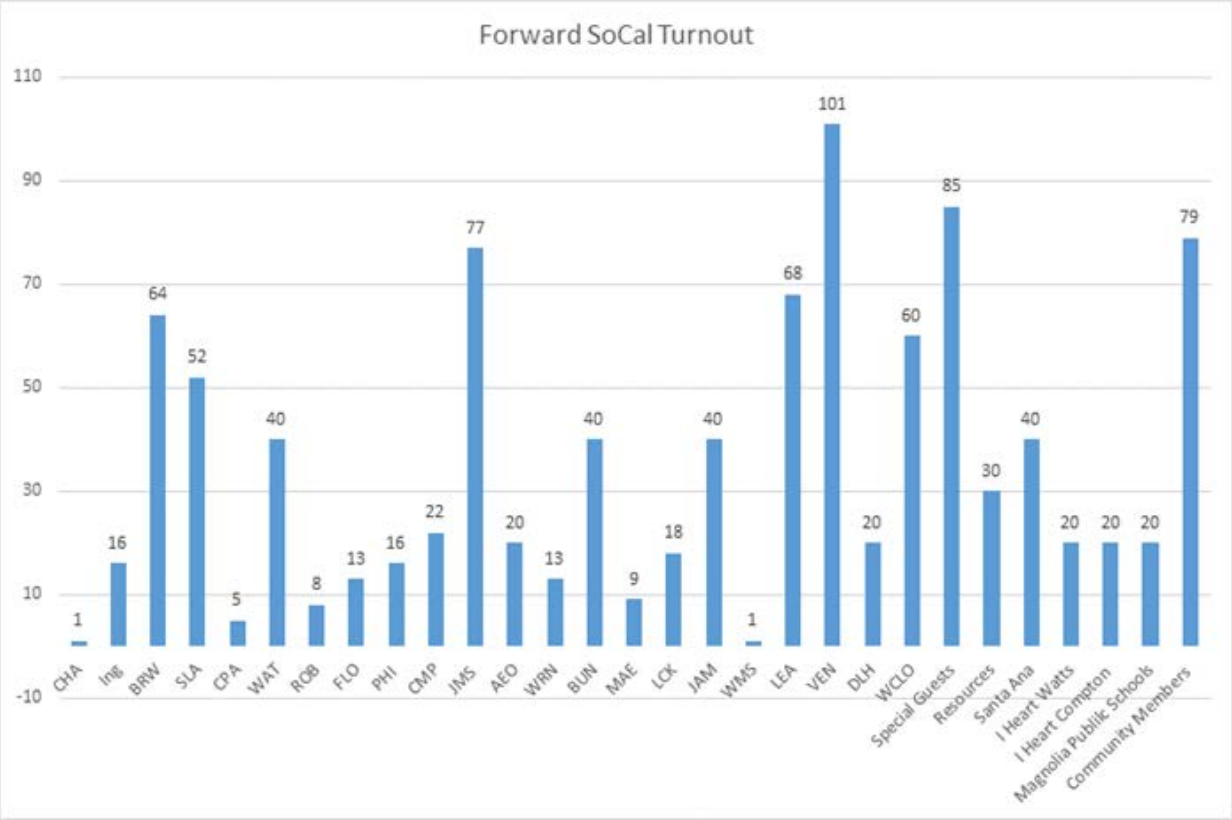
Parent Coordinators,

Thank you so much for inputting your assembly turnout data into Salesforce. Below is a chart outlining turnout by school. We appreciate your hard work on this event and commitment to supporting families in organizing for more affordable housing, high-quality job opportunities, clean streets, healthy food options, and more.

Huge shout out to Animo Venice, and especially PC Juanita Garcia and CEA Leo Ontiveros, for turning out the most people: 101!!



Thank you for sharing the wins and next steps document we created (re-attached here), and for thanking those that attended (via a call, note or appreciation session). Please send us any feedback that you think will be helpful as we plan future events. Our next Community Organizing Institute will take place on January 26th, 9am-12pm at the Henry Clay Learning Complex. You should have a meeting maker for this- we'll add the updated flyer to the meeting maker next week.

Salesforce

As a reminder, please aim to have all data from fall semester input by winter break. Beginning in January, we will be including parent engagement progress updates by school based on Salesforce data in NFTD.

Thanks so much!

You rule. I'm so impressed that you are able to manage the madness of the admin world with getting into teachers' rooms. Thank you!

It looks like more students have the book in this clas and they all also have the same version of the book which really helps! Heck yes. I know he got some at B&N and resold them at cost to help kiddos out.

They started off taking a quiz and from what I could tell all students were writing so maybe the read… That is definitely a good sign!

Right now they are doing partner reading and they know that they are following this with a CER paragraph but my wondering is … there are no guiding questions posted for the students to keep in mind while they read, he didn't mention anything to look out for as they read and they are not annotating…. What are your thoughts? Is partner reading not supposed to have elements like that or is this a growth area? You are right. There should be signposts during the reading. When the three of us last met, I told them that having a pausing point + question every ~2 pages would keep kids accountable but not overwhelm them. This is a great flag for our next planning meeting. Are you able to follow-up with him next week? Or should I reach out?

Thanks for checking in!

Hey so he was really open to breaking up the reading chunks and said that he felt like he had done a better job of it earlier on and then kinda laxed. So we talked about how he could use his end of reading questions to do smaller chunked check in questions and then do bigger analysis type questions at the end of the whole reading. ☺

Congratulations Jeff.

Ms. Shariff is the only 5th period teacher on prep. I believe she's actually booked that day. We'll have to brainstorm so that we can figure out coverage for you. We've got time to figure it out.

Hi folks!

Good news! My son [redacted] will be awarded Student of the Month this Friday. I can't remember who our only period 5 conference period teacher is but I need a bit of help in getting coverage until 9 on Friday so I can go celebrate my son's honor before heading here for the rest of the day.

Can you help me with that?
Thanks!

Can it be during parent conferences? I don't feel comfortable telling people they have to meet outside our regular work day.

Hi GLLs,

For Friday's meeting here are some things to discuss:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->- <!--[endif]-->Check in about SST kiddos and decide on dates hopefully dates before Feb 6th. If you email admin with the date and time we can make the calls for setting up the SST.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->- <!--[endif]-->Check in on the College Ready teaching and learning Vision and have people share what goals and action steps their departments committed to.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->- <!--[endif]-->Spend time cross curricular planning with each other.

Subject: GD Board Meeting on Feb. 1

Hey Julio,

On Friday, I am going to present a proposal to the GD School Board about creating a website hub / social media for developing collaborative art projects among the art teachers at Green Dot Public Schools. It is part of the fellowship I received from Arts in LA. I am asking for funding sources to create and maintain this site for the next five years. I would need a sub for the afternoon on Friday. The meeting is at 2pm so I would have to leave around 12:15, 12:30, which means I could miss only Period 7. They require I be there at least half an hour early.

Should I get someone to take those periods - advisory and period 7? Or get a sub for the day? I will still be at school for most of the day either way.

If you would like to discuss this further, please let me know.

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,
Mr. John P. KANNOFSKY

I hope you had a great break! I wanted to give you a heads up that there are 2 parts to the GDCAP Q3 this semester.

Algebra 1

Let me know if you need any support! The scan by date is March 15!

Hey miss,

Do we know yet whether this and the math ilt day will still be happening? I'm worried about the strike continuing.

If we haven't made the call yet do you know when we would make that call? I want to let my teachers know.

Thanks!

I think I deserve that 70% because I did study hard for the exam and becuase I do my classwork in class. I will start turning in my work on time and study even harder for my grade to be higher than a 70%

Hi Everyone,

In the past, we've organized a Holiday gift for Dickens, V, and Don Alvaro. I don't mind collecting the money/buying the gifts/cards (I'm thinking Visa gift cards). If you'd like to contribute, please either give me cash or venmo me (@sofia-leal) by Friday. Please keep in mind that your contributions will be going towards three different gifts, not just one.

Let me know if you have any questions!

I was able to get an appointment today at 2:30 for my son to see the therapist (lots happened in the last two days). Unfortunately I did not realize I would be having to run the grade level meeting today and so I took the appointment slot. I will leave a list of items for the team to talk about and add to our meeting minutes, which will be shared with you.

Good afternoon GLs,

I'm sorry for not sending this sooner! For grade level time today here is what I just sent he staff. For you all if you can also please check in with any new teachers in your grade level about making sure they understand how to handle final exams and updating grades. Thanks!

Hello team,

This is a reminder that you should be working with your grade level today in collaboration. Please make sure to discuss any lingering questions about wrapping up the semester and storing grades. If your team was unable to decide on your 2-3 students for full SSTs in second semester please make sure that you finalize those decisions as well.

Thank you!

Hey Danielle-

This is a great question. I'm going to CC all admin so everyone gets the answer.

I am attaching instructions for teachers to verify their grades and for admin to see who has and has not verified. A teacher not verifying will not stop their grades from being stored. It is just a mechanism used to easily know who is and is not ready to have their grades stored.

As for storing grades, S1/Q2 grades will be stored starting at 5PM on 1/11/19 by KM. If you would like grades stored on an earlier date, please submit this form.

Please remind your office staff to not transfer out any students until grades have been stored. If a student must be checked out prior to the grade storing deadline, contact me so I can store the students' grades early. Let me know if you have any additional questions.

Hi Jeff,

I know that teachers are using Gradebook Pro this year and I just wanted to make sure we are finalizing student grades correctly. Is there a systems report that shows whether or not teachers have verified their grades?

We are having teachers close out their grades on Friday December 21st by 3pm. Our ops team will be printing report cards at that point. Is there anything else you need from us?

HI Nerdfone team,

Is there a report in tableau that would tell me last semester's D/F data by grade level? I would like my grade level leads to look at it. If you tell me what it's named I can totally pull it!

Thanks!

Hi Wendy,

We've noticed a problem with our history cart (Cart D) – it seems like the cart itself is not charging when plugged in so none of the computers are getting charged. We've tried different outlets in different classrooms with no luck. Perhaps IT needs to take a look at it?

Thanks!

Hey Team,

Many of the computers in the cart were dead and I assumed it was left unplugged during the break, but now I'm worried that the cart itself is not charging. The blue light does not turn on when the power button is engaged. FYI – we may need IT support on this, but I'll check again in a bit to see if the computers are charging now that it's plugged in!

Hello Julio,

I hope all is well. History Day is growing, and we have 10 students who are participating. The registration for history day is this Friday, and I wanted to touch base with you in regards to using my dept. budget to pay for students registration fees. I had applied to a few grants to secure funds, but unfortunately I was not awarded funds.

The cost for registration will be $550.

Hey team,,
After seeing the e-mail, I reached out to a few teachers to see if they'd be available at 7am. Ms. Makkar and Mr. Montenegro both said they could make it. Ms. Leal, do you need any support choosing and confirming with one of them? I would recommend Ms. Makkar. Mr. Montenegro was willing, but expressed that it would be difficult since he doesn't drive.

Hey team,,
After seeing the e-mail, I reached out to a few teachers to see if they'd be available at 7am. Ms. Makkar and Mr. Montenegro both said they could make it. Ms. Leal, do you need any support choosing and confirming with one of them? I would recommend Ms. Makkar. Mr. Montenegro was willing, but expressed that it would be difficult since he doesn't drive.

Hi Jessica & Sherrie,

I just wanted to check in about the IAB Test that I will be administering on Monday & Tuesday of next week.

Jessica - Kevin mentioned that he would send computer cart requests for the whole department regarding the IAB Test, but I wanted to double check with you. Which computer cart will I be using for these two days? I can get it after school tomorrow from whoever has it.

Sherrie - Will you be providing the student information cards & graph paper? If not, I can print tomorrow morning.

Thank you for you help!

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms. Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th
Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th
And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

Hi team,

As mentioned below, we have authorized use of every designated support and embedded accommodation regardless of what the IEP says. Every 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will be assessed and will have every support available.

Admin team, can you share the date Venice is administering this assessment?

Thank you!

Subject: IAB Testing

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.

- *If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best,

Hi team,

As mentioned below, we have authorized use of every designated support and embedded accommodation regardless of what the IEP says. Every 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will be assessed and will have every support available.

Admin team, can you share the date Venice is administering this assessment?

Thank you!

Do we have a tentative date for when I could administer this test? I'm thinking my department and I could do this in AS and then Advisory for those who don't have AS. My days in AS for this semester are quickly coming to a close so I'd like to plan for this ☺

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.

- *If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms. Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th

Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th

And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms. Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th
Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th
And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

Hi team,

As mentioned below, we have authorized use of every designated support and embedded accommodation regardless of what the IEP says. Every 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will be assessed and will have every support available.

Admin team, can you share the date Venice is administering this assessment?

Thank you!

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.

- *If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best,

Subject: IAB Testing

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.
- *If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best,

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms. Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th

Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th

And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms.

Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th
Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th
And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

As mentioned below, we have authorized use of every designated support and embedded accommodation regardless of what the IEP says. Every 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will be assessed and will have every support available.

Admin team, can you share the date Venice is administering this assessment?

Thank you!

Subject: IAB Testing

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.
- If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best,

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms. Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th
Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th
And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

Hi team,

As mentioned below, we have authorized use of every designated support and embedded accommodation regardless of what the IEP says. Every 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will be assessed and will have every support available.

Admin team, can you share the date Venice is administering this assessment?

Thank you!

Best,

Subject: IAB Testing

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.
- If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Hello Team,

Sorry for the delay in my response. For the IAB Mr. Castro is the first to administer on 12/11 and 12/12 I will print all of the login cards for the kids and I'm getting graph paper for the scratch paper. Mr. Castro and Ms. Koenes please let me know what I can do to support. Our students with IEPs. Here's what I know about the test as regards IEPs

1) Plan for supports for your students with disabilities.
    - KM is going to activate a baseline of accommodations (selected by the SEPAs) in the system for all students IEPs. This will allow students with disabilities and their case carriers to test out the tools and accommodations in the system prior to SBAC and write the supportive features into student IEPs in time for SBAC.
    - If any students at your site are generally pulled out for SBAC or other similar testing in a small group setting or have push-in testing support, you will want to consider whether you are providing these same supports for the IAB. Please also plan accordingly with support teachers or aides around IAB implementation.

Ms. Shariff is the next to administer during Finals week on 12-17 and 12-18. Ms. Quintero and Ms. Gauthier can you touch base with Ms. Shariff. Again I will be printing the login cards and getting the graph paper.

Mr. Rombro is administering Jan 8th and 9th
Ms. Choi is administering Jan 14th through the 16th
And Ms. Smith is administering Jan 31st to Feb 5th

I will print the login cards for all teachers and students.

Thank you team I hope this clarifies!

Hi team,

As mentioned below, we have authorized use of every designated support and embedded accommodation regardless of what the IEP says. Every 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grader will be assessed and will have every support available.

Admin team, can you share the date Venice is administering this assessment?

Thank you!

Subject: IAB Testing

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.
- If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best,

Subject: IAB Testing

Hello SPED Team,

This school year all schools and grade levels will be administering IAB testing for Math in the month of December. Since a majority of our students with IEPs receive small group testing, you will have some students with IEPs test with you. The assessment is all on the computer, and mirrors the SBAC. SPED teachers will be receiving an account from California assessment systems, so that they can access to the assessment. Please note that you will receive an email with account setup instructions (a sample of what this email looks like is attached to this email). Please do not delete this email, and please follow the steps in the email when you receive it to prevent any delays in account set-up.

Please see below for answers to most commonly asked questions about IAB Testing:

Q:When will the assessment be given?
A: The assessment will take place in December, and the exact dates are determined by your individual school site. Please consult with your site admin for your assessment dates.

Q: How will accommodations be provided?
A: We have enabled all embedded universal tools, designated supports, and accommodations for all students. If a non-embedded designated support or accommodation is needed you may use any of the CAASPP non-embedded accommodations.

- The rationale for this is to allow students the ability to practice with available tools, and have SPED teachers informally monitor usage during testing to aide in deciding if any supports should be added or removed from the IEP.
- *If you need more information about what universal tools, designated supports, and/or accommodations are used for this test please see attached CASPP Accommodations Document.

Q: Will we get results from this assessment?
A: Yes! If you are the person administering the assessment you will receive access to a separate portal (another email and login info to come) where you can access score reports for your students. If you have a student with an IEP who is not testing with you, the Math teacher will have the score report and site admin and SEPAs also will have access to those scores as well.

Q: How do I get more information about the test?
A: Attached to this email is a copy of the IAB Training Deck. You may also reach out to your Math teacher, SEPA, Math CS, and/or site admin for additional information and questions you may have.

Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best,

Hi Glynis

Yes I would love to understand this better. I am a little confused. Will this assessment also give the parent an IQ score?

Glynis,
The IEP for DP is set for 2pm. Do you think it would be possible to delay it about 15-30 minutes? We have admin coaching with Damon until 2pm. I gave him a heads up about the IEP since either Julio or I will need to be in attendance. HE requested that we move the IEP back some.
If not possible, let me know. I know mom gave specific dates and times of her availability.

Hello Team,
As a friendly reminder from the SPED team, please ensure that all Teacher Input forms (PLOPs -> student present levels of performance) are returned to the Case Carrier (SPED Teacher) in the requested time. They need this mandatory information to be prepared for their IEP meetings. Also, your attendance at an IEP meeting is essential to the meeting taking place. Your input helps the student and parent gain a greater understanding of their performance and is a Federal requirement.

On behalf of the SpEd Team, we thank you for your continued diligence and support.

I hope you had a nice weekend. I am reaching out to you to ensure I have the correct caseload for you for S2 as I am working with an agency to get someone to write these IEPs. Am I missing any IEPs on this list? Also can you give me an update on the overdue IEP for DP?

Thank you!

Fyi, if my surgery on 1/23 is more invasive than what I currently anticipate (meaning I am super swollen or bloody or ????????? after) then I will let Wendy know I need a sub for 1/24 as well. The surgeon just has no way of knowing how invasive/extensive it is until after the surgery begins ☹
So, I assume it will be fine, but just wanted to let you know.

Hi There,

Can you and Amber edit the log entry on the prior statement and report for clarity? She notes the statement was made but not clear how Sofia ends up referring to Greego. Also, the dates are not included so the order of events is not clear. They may not be able to edit the log date, so maybe you'll need to help with that part or they can add it in the narrative. Greego needs to log that he saw the student if he did so.

Do you know if Greego conducted a threat assessment? If so, what was the outcome?

Hey Sherrie!

Two of my other schools are doing ILT retreats this month and I heard about them the day before. Is that something your school is planning? I wasn't sure if that was an ALT ask, or just a school site choice.

I'd love to attend if so and put it in my calendar! If not, one less thing to do! ☺

Hope your kiddos didn't freak out too much about the rain!

Hey Sharon!

I hope you had a great break! I was wondering if you'd be comfortable with me introducing Illustrative Math to Kevin so that he maybe can do one of the units in second semester. I think as department chair it would be cool for him to get the experience and it won't impact any of the SBAC students! The Geo/Alg 2 curriculum seems a bit tough to throw kids into second semester. I'd be more comfortable after the SBAC for Shazeen/Josh to try if they are interested.

Hey Sharon!

I hope you had a great break! I was wondering if you'd be comfortable with me introducing Illustrative Math to Kevin so that he maybe can do one of the units in second semester. I think as department chair it would be cool for him to get the experience and it won't impact any of the SBAC students! The Geo/Alg 2 curriculum seems a bit tough to throw kids into second semester. I'd be more comfortable after the SBAC for Shazeen/Josh to try if they are interested.

Let me know your thoughts,
Christina

Subject: Important information about the senior research paper

Hi Everyone!

Important updates about the senior research paper! This e-mail is long, but please take a minute to read through all of the information.

Topics:
The research paper will be a cross-curricular project again this year! Students' topics will align with the topics they select for their Government Soap-Box project (they will be writing their paper and their speech on the same topic). Students will be required to research an issue affecting their community.

Timeline:

- Week of April 1st:
  - Students pick a topic/research question
  - Advisors are assigned
    - This is different than last year. Student's will not be selecting an advisor. Instead, the 12th grade teachers will be meeting to assign students an advisor.
- Week of April 22nd:
  - Research paper is introduced in English 12/AP Lit
- May 3rd:
  - Section 1 due
- May 10th:

- Section 2 due

- May 17th:
  - Section 3 due
- May 24th:
  - Final Research Paper Due

Advisors:

Due to the smaller number of teachers available to advise this year, each teacher will carry a caseload of approximately 26 students. Students will be assigned to an advisor (as a reminder, although students do have choice in their topic, they will not have choice in their advisor). Our goal is to have every student assigned to an advisor by April 3rd.

- Stone
- Leal
- Makkar
- Montenegro
- Jaureguy

What do Advisors do?

Advisors are responsible for setting mandatory office hours for students not making deadlines, provide timely feedback, monitoring students' progress towards the deadlines, and grading the final research paper.

Where is the paper being written?

Research will be conducted in Government and Cultural Relations. English will focus on the composition and organization of the research paper.

Google Classroom and Turnitin:

Once you receive your research advisory group, you will create a Google Classroom and Turnitin class specifically for those students.

Good afternoon,
As you all know by now, the LAUSD Board is planning to vote on a resolution next Tuesday that would ask Sacramento to place a cap on new charters within LAUSD. We are very concerned about this resolution because we believe it could have a ripple effect across the state and lead to other challenges (more difficult renewals, difficulty getting facilities projects approved through the city, etc.). We are working closely with the California Charter Schools Association and other charters to push back on this resolution. Elected officials are telling us they need to see charter supporters show up in force on Tuesday in order to have a chance at preventing this resolution from passing and to ensure the voices of the parents and students we serve are heard.

We need to get Green Dot parents to the Board meeting. Given the short turnaround, we will be working with a small handful of schools (schools with a Green Dot middle and high school feeder pattern) to turn out as many Green Dot families as possible. I will email the administrators at those schools directly, but I wanted to make sure all of you knew how important Tuesday is to us as an organization and to the children and families we serve. This is a watershed moment for the charter movement in CA and across the country. Thanks for your continued support. Please feel free to reach out with any questions.

Subject: Important: School Leader Interim Reflection Conferences - Due by Feb 8th

Dear School Leaders and Area Superintendents,

Happy 2019. As we start the new calendar year, it is time to reflect on our professional goals, our areas of strength and our areas of growth as a school leader. Interim Reflection Conferences (IRCs) are an integral component of our School Leader Evaluation process and the IRC serves as an opportunity to formally check-in on Individual Sustainability and Professional Goals created at the beginning of the year, discuss current strengths and growth areas, and align on appropriate next steps.

SLE Interim Reflection Conferences must be held and closed in EdReflect no later than Friday, February 8th. You have a meeting maker already to remind you.

I have attached a soft copy of the IRC template as well as the evaluator and evaluatee instructions for those of you who need a reminder or are new to the process. You can always reach out to your area superintendent or Julia Fisher should you have questions or need support.

Evaluatees will complete their IRC and upload the document at least 48 hours before their Conference is to be held. Evaluators will need to review the uploaded IRC and answer the three questions in EdReflect before closing the IRC on or before February 8th.

For the few school leaders who still have not completed your Professional Goals (see attached template) you will be asked to complete both your Goal Conference and IRC prior to February 8th. This is a non-negotiable component of your evaluation and it MUST be completed no later than the 8th.

Just have the teacher double click on the final grade in their grade book and they can override the final grade with an I. If she has any problems, have her contact nerdfone and they can walk her through it. Let me know if you have any additional questions.

Hi Carol—

I wouldn't recommend it. PreCalculus and Statistics require more preparation, a more consistent work ethic and stronger performance than Trigonometry does. Why he would think those classes would be better alternatives than Trigonometry- which caters to an incomplete background in math, lapses in work ethic and builds a solid understanding—is strange to me.

[redacted] failed Trigonometry because he didn't do HW, had frequent absences and often seemed sleepy/distracted/disoriented when he was in class. Unless he has a different semester of math below the level of Trig he needs to redo, he should not be moved.

Good Morning Ms. Smith and Mr. Castro:

Hope you had a restful break☺ I am emailing because [redacted] (12^{th}) is requesting to drop his Trigonometry class and switch it to either Pre-Calc or Statistics. Below are his math courses and grades from Magnolia Science Academy 4:

Math	Integrated Math I	B	B	10	10
"c"	Integrated Math II	B	C	10	10
	Integrated Math III	C	C	10	10
	Integrated Math				10
	Pre-Calculus				10
	Trigonometry				10
	AP Calculus				10
				30	30

Dear English Teachers and School Administrators,

As you know, the Green Dot Literacy program aims to empower all students with the critical reading, writing, and communication skills they need to positively shape their own lives and impact the broader world. The 2018-2019 Animo Voices Writing Competition invites students to write about something that matters to them and persuade their audience to care or take action. This competition is an opportunity to motivate, recognize, and celebrate our strong student voices and writing skills with exciting prizes, publication, and scholarships. Both student winners and the teachers that have supported their writing will receive prizes. Every school site was given the opportunity to select their top two student entries for the first round of prizes.

I'd like invite you to serve on our Animo Voices Writing Competition judges panel. This panel will convene on Monday, February 4 from 3:30-5:30 to read the top school entries and select the winners for the first, second and third place prizes organization-wide. As writing teachers and school leaders working closely with students every day, you will bring an invaluable perspective to this work.

Please respond to this email by Friday, January 25 if you are interested in serving as a judge!

Here you go Sherrie! There are 107 students enrolled in math support and 10 who have not completed the assessment. 91% completion. This report gets updated every 24 hours.

Tableau > Internal Math – CA > iReady Completion. Then filtered to 9th grade, and then Yes for intervention. Which led me to this data.

Good Morning Math Leaders,

I hope that everyone had a good 3-day weekend.

I wanted to send a quick reminder to let you know that we have 2 weeks remaining within our optional i-Ready Mid-Year Testing Window. If you plan to test students not enrolled in Math Foundations or Math Support and haven't started the process, you'll want to check-in with other colleagues as needed to get the ball rolling. (While students can continue testing outside the window, we will use that window to pull comparison data.)

Please don't hesitate to reach out to your Math Curriculum Specialist.

Subject: i-Ready Mid-Year Testing Window

Good Afternoon Math Department Chairs and Administrators Supporting Math,

While students in Math Foundations and Math Support take the i-Ready Diagnostic 4 times each year, we only have had our other math students complete the i-Ready Diagnostic at the beginning and the end of the year to measure growth. This year, we've added an optional mid-year testing window for students not in intervention to complete the i-Ready Diagnostic. Ultimately, it is up to each school to decide whether a mid-year data point on the i-Ready Diagnostic is meaningful for their school site in addition to the yearlong growth data. (Many schools already did this last year, but we wanted to standardize the window to allow for better comparison data.)

The mid-year i-Ready Diagnostic Window for non-Math Foundations/Support students is January 7 - February 1. The data from this assessment could be used for the following purposes:

- indicator of student growth or progress during the year so far
    - analyze data by teacher, class, or student
- planning for targeted SBAC interventions
- updated data for planning grade-level appropriate scaffolds or IEPs
- early placement data for master scheduling

You should probably determine as an admin/GDILT/math department team whether you will be testing during this midyear window soon in order to allow time for communication and planning to test upon your return in January.

Middle School: Students would likely either test through 21st Century Learning Lab: Community Problem-Solving (Technology) or PE based on where you place your students who not in Math Foundations. We don't recommend testing in Core Math Classes during this window because most students will have recently tested in Window #2 and will test again in Window #3 for Math

Foundations and this would take time away from core grade-level content. (We strongly recommend testing students in PLTW. This is our first year with these courses and it will helpful to have some comparison today about how they're growing compared to students in Math Foundations). If you're testing in these other classes, this might require coordination with PE, Technology, or Science teachers – so please plan accordingly.

High School: Students would not need to test in Algebra 1. Those students would already have tested recently and will test again soon in Math Support or they could test in Geometry. We've built a couple days for midyear i-Ready testing into the pacing guides for Geometry, Algebra 2, and other upper level math courses. It may not be as helpful for you to test 12th graders at this point since they will not take the SBAC and don't need placement data for next year, but you can decide as a school site if it's still useful updated instructional data.

To support planning for this assessment, please review testing tips from the initial newsletter on i-Ready Diagnostic Testing.

Don't hesitate to reach out to me or your Math Curriculum Specialist for any planning support.

Okay sounds good. Thanks for keeping me in the loop. There are a lot of midyear IEPs happening and the iReady growth data is looked at for goal setting also we have an SBAC planning day coming up and it would be good to see where our 11th graders are placing as we prepare for that.

Thanks team!

However, there are several students that are not done for various reasons: not here on the Monday, the field trip last Friday, or slow worker.

If students need a clean-up day to finish then I think we need to arrange it within a 3 week window or they have to start over.

Hello there,

Just checking in on dates for the midyear iReady test. I think Ms. Shariff has this planned for next week and I'm pretty sure Ms. Smith has already given it. (Well done ladies!)

Mr. Rombro and Mr. Castro have you also given it already or do you have a date planned coming up?

Let me know! Thanks team!

Hi Sherrie,

As of Friday, that was the case. I'm attaching an export I just pulled this afternoon that will give you most updated numbers.

Anyone in yellow has completed their 2nd diagnostic. Anyone in white has not yet completed their 2nd diagnostic. It looks like 29 out of the 106 students in Math Support have completed the test so far.

Let me know if any additional info would be helpful.

Thanks!

Good Afternoon Administrators,

Our i-Ready Window #2 for students in Math Foundations and Math Support officially ended on Friday, November 16 but we extended it another week until last Friday, November 30 to allow for any additional testing time or makeups etc. Overall, we had 93% of the students in Math Foundations and Math Support complete Diagnostic #2 within the window!

I'm attaching an i-Ready Window #2 Summary for this year to allow you to see some overall and comparison data.

I'd also like you to share with you an awesome new report in Tableau – Internal Math - CA – that KM created with some updated ways to view your i-Ready proficiency and growth data.

If you have additional questions about more specific data for your school site, please feel free to reach out to me and your Math Curriculum Specialist.

Hi Sherry,

I went to tableau in search of my students' Lexile scores (they took the test right before the end of Semester 1), but I'm having trouble finding them. No matter what I do, nothing is populating. I can't access any scores by student, by class, by period etc.

Is it possible I'm doing anything wrong? In the section that reads, "Choose School," I click on "Venice," but nothing is appearing. Do you have access to the scores? Would it be possible to send me the data for my 4th period?

Thank you!

Good Morning Admin,

As we met to discuss possible SST candidates, we discussed [redacted] progress this year. As you can see, he has the lowest GPA among the entire 9th grade. We are asking for your support with this student.

Can you please hold a parent meeting with the student and the parent to see what is going on with? I met with the parent in September of last year as an early, intervention meeting, but it was very unsuccessful. Mom and dad were present, but it seemed that mom was the only one concerned with the meeting. Dad was not engaged, he would not look at me, and did not seem very interested in anything I had to say.

Can you please meet with parents to discuss the following:

Hi All,

Thank you Dr. Lara for sending the email and for the information! I'm meeting with Ms. Cervantes tomorrow to discuss some 9th grade concerns so I will discuss [redacted] as well and then we will let you all know as soon as we are able to schedule a meeting.

Just checking in though is he one of the students you all chose for an SST or no? Also if we schedule a parent meeting it would be great to have teachers present to give more context to the situation, are any of you willing/able to be present if I try to schedule the meeting for before or after school?

Thanks team!

Good Morning Admin,

As we met to discuss possible SST candidates, we discussed [redacted] progress this year. As you can see, he has the lowest GPA among the entire 9th grade. We are asking for your support with this student.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Can you please hold a parent meeting with the student and the parent to see what is going on with? I met with the parent in September of last year as an early, intervention meeting, but it was very unsuccessful. Mom and dad were present, but it seemed that mom was the only one concerned with the meeting. Dad was not engaged, he would not look at me, and did not seem very interested in anything I had to say.

Can you please meet with parents to discuss the following:

No improvement, no parental support, parent meeting took place, no improvement.

Thank You,

Hi Jessica and Ms. Gorsoch,

I am so sorry I was not able to send a detailed email about [redacted] progress, but given his current GPA (the lowest of the 9th grade), I'm sure you were able to discuss his academic progress so far.

How did the meeting go? What can we do in class to support? Do you recommend we move on with an SST for this student?

Thank you so much for meeting with the parents. We greatly appreciate your support!

We can move him to 6th period Spanish (which might be a good switch since Torres' 3rd sounds rough) and give him Lit Enrichment 3rd.

Also, I am more than happy to be part of the parent meeting for him if you want to schedule one. I think it would be good to, especially once we have some info from Greego and to follow up on the mental health piece. Because we can get him linked her if it's not working out with Venice Family Clinic.
